Aims and values

1. The Labour Party is a democratic socialist Party. 2. To these ends we work for:
 - A. A DYNAMIC ECONOMY, serving the public interest, in which the enterprise of the market and the rigour of competition are joined with the forces of partnership and co-operation to produce the wealth the nation needs and the opportunity for all to work and prosper with a thriving private sector and high-quality public services where those undertakings essential to the common good are either owned by the public or accountable to them
 - B. A JUST SOCIETY, which judges its strength by the condition of the weak as much as the strong, provides security against fear, and justice at work; which nurtures families, promotes equality of opportunity, and delivers people from the tyranny of poverty, prejudice and the abuse of power
 - C. AN OPEN DEMOCRACY, in which government is held to account by the people, decisions are taken as far as practicable by the communities they affect and where fundamental human rights are guaranteed
 - D. A HEALTHY ENVIRONMENT, which we protect, enhance and hold in trust for future generations.

 - D. Where a member has been convicted of a serious criminal offence or subject of a serious ruling from HM Courts and Tribunals Service, the NEC shall have the right to impose the appropriate disciplinary action from the following options:
 - i. Suspension from membership or from holding office and representation of the Party for the duration of any prison sentence imposed, including a suspended sentence.

Where the NEC determines it is appropriate and based on a conviction for a serious offence or subject of a serious ruling from HM Courts and Tribunals Service, resolve that a member is ineligible to be or remain a Party member, subject to the provisions of Chapter 6.1.2 below of the disciplinary rules.
5. Resident abroad
 - A. 8. No member of the Party shall engage in conduct which in the opinion of the NEC is prejudicial, or in any act which in the opinion of the NEC is grossly detrimental to the Party. The NEC shall take account of any codes of conduct currently in force and shall regard any incident which in their view might reasonably be seen to demonstrate hostility or prejudice based on age; disability; gender reassignment or identity; marriage and civil partnership; pregnancy and maternity; race; religion or belief; sex; or sexual orientation as conduct prejudicial to the Party; these shall include but not be limited to incidents involving racism, antisemitism, Islamophobia or otherwise racist language, sentiments, stereotypes or actions, sexual harassment, bullying or any form of intimidation towards another person on the basis of a protected characteristic as determined by the NEC, wherever it occurs, as conduct prejudicial to the Party. Any dispute as to whether a member is in breach of the provisions of this sub-clause shall be determined by the NCC in accordance with Chapter 1 Clause IX above and the disciplinary rules and guidelines in Chapter 6 below. The NCC shall not have regard to the mere holding or expression of beliefs and opinions except in any instance inconsistent with the Party's aims and values, agreed codes of conduct, or involving prejudice towards any protected characteristic.

Clause II. Membership procedures

1. Individual members of the Party shall be recruited into membership in accordance with these rules and any applicable NEC guidelines which shall be issued to Party units and affiliated organisations from time to time. Members of affiliated organisations not already members who have paid the political levy or political subscriptions to the affiliated organisation for a period of at least 12 months may be recruited into membership of the Party via that affiliated organisation as registered members.

2. Without prejudice to any other provision of these rules, and without prejudice to its powers under Chapter 1.VIII, the NEC shall be empowered to determine any dispute or question which may arise in respect of membership of the Party, either by considering the matter itself or by referring the matter to the NEC Disputes Panel for a decision. In such cases the NEC's decision, or the decision of the Disputes Panel as approved by the NEC, shall be final and binding.
3. For the avoidance of doubt and without prejudice to any other provision in this rule book, any breach of any of these procedures, NEC guidelines or the NEC code of conduct shall be liable to be dealt with by the NCC as a disciplinary offence.
4. The NEC shall issue procedural guidelines on issues relating to membership from time to time, including a code of conduct on membership recruitment. In particular, the NEC wishes to highlight the following areas of potential abuse of membership rules:
 - A. It is an abuse of Party rules for one individual or faction to 'buy' Party membership for other individuals or groups of individuals who would otherwise be unwilling to pay their own subscriptions.
 - B. It is an abuse of Party rules for an individual or faction to offer reduced-rate membership to people they know to be ineligible for that category of membership.
 - C. It is an abuse of Party rules for individuals or factions to recruit members who do not live at the claimed addresses in an attempt to manipulate local Party meetings or the outcome of Party ballots.
 - D. It is a requirement of Party rules for members, where eligible, to register to vote at the address for which they claim membership. It is an abuse of this rule to allow those who are not willing to register to vote for the Party to become members of it.
 - E. It shall be regarded as an act grossly detrimental to the Party to withhold membership payments collected locally.
 - F. Party officers and members should be aware that involvement in such abuses shall be considered as behaviour likely to bring the Party into disrepute and prima facie evidence of such behaviour may lead to disciplinary action leading to expulsion under the constitutional rules of the Party.

Clause III.

Membership subscriptions

1. Each individual member of the Party shall pay a minimum annual membership subscription. The level of subscription shall be set in accordance with the formula shown below.
 - A. Reduced Rate
 - i. A reduced minimum rate set at half the Standard Rate will be offered to persons who are unwaged, pensioners who have retired from work, persons working less than 16 hours a week and persons on government training schemes,
 - B. Elected Representative Rate
 - i. An elected representative's rate shall be set at twice the Standard Rate for all elected representatives with the exception of local authority councillors.
 - C. Registered Trade Union Rate
 - i. Members of an affiliated trade union paying the political levy and members of an affiliated socialist society paying a political subscription, who are not already full members of the Party, shall be allowed individual 'registered' membership of the Party at a reduced minimum annual subscription
 - D. Youth Rate
 - i. New members under the age of 19 or Labour Students can join for an annual subscription of £1 and can continue on that reduced rate whilst they are in full time education as follows:
 - a. Under the age of 19 at £1.00 per year
 - b. Under the age of 27 at £12.00 per year, and
 - c. Under the age of 28 at the Reduced Rate
 - E. Standard Rate
 - i. There shall be a standard rate for all other members
 - F. Exceptions
 - i. The NEC may from time to time define membership offers to encourage recruitment and retention
 - ii. To further aid retention, members recruited by an NEC exceptional rate shall be offered the opportunity to renew at the end of their first year at the Reduced Rate before moving to their appropriate rate at the end of their second year.

- G. In order to provide all members with a quality membership service and to achieve the objectives of the Labour Party, members are encouraged to pay a membership fee according to their annual income.
 - H. The NEC will determine membership rates as and when necessary for Annual Conference to approve.
2. That on the 1st January each year the membership fee will increase by the rate of inflation (using the rate of inflation for the previous October). The reduced and registered rate membership fees will be set at 50% of the full rate each year rounded to the nearest 50p. The Elected Representatives' rate will be set at twice the standard rate each year. The NEC will retain the power to bring to Party conference recommendations to set the membership fee increase at a level greater than inflation, if it deems that necessary.
 3. In order to develop membership, CLPs may adjust membership subscriptions for specific purposes as agreed in principle by Party conference.
 4. Eligibility and arrears
 - A. A member may only participate and vote in Party meetings if they are endorsed and have paid the appropriate subscription to Head Office. Any dispute as to eligibility shall be resolved by the Regional Director (or General Secretary in Scotland and Wales) – RD(GS), or their designated representative, with reference to the records of the national membership system. It is the responsibility of the individual member to produce a valid membership card when required.
 - B. To participate in the selection of candidates at any level, a member must be fully paid up by the notified relevant date. A member shall be deemed to be 'fully paid up' if they are not in arrears, either in whole or in part, with their membership payments.
 - C. A member shall be deemed to be in arrears from the expiry date of their membership until they renew their subscription.
 - D. A member shall be deemed to have lapsed from membership if s/he has been in arrears for six months and has not responded to a request to pay the arrears.
 5. NEC guidelines shall be published to deal with the payment of membership arrears and the granting in exceptional circumstances of continuous membership to lapsed members who have paid any outstanding subscriptions owed.
 6. An NEC approved statement shall be produced setting out the basis on which membership fees shall be allocated, including a minimum cash allocation of £1.50 per paid up member and a guaranteed minimum package of support for all CLPs. The minimum cash allocation will increase on January 1st each year by the rate of inflation (using the rate of inflation for the previous October).

 12. Any exceptions to rules 1-11 above can only be made with the approval of the NEC or an officer exercising the powers given to them by the NEC.
4. The NEC may establish a European parliamentary panel of candidates. Training will be made available to interested nominees and targeted action will be taken to increase the representation of women, ethnic minority and disabled members and those from manual and clerical backgrounds on the national panel. Those members who achieve the minimum standards for accreditation as determined by the NEC through an assessment process will be included on the parliamentary panel. 8. The selection of a European parliamentary candidate shall not be regarded as completed until the name of the member selected has been placed before a meeting of the NEC and her or his selection has been endorsed. Until such endorsement has been received the member shall not be introduced to the public as a prospective candidate.

9. A region (or Scotland and Wales), having completed the selection of its prospective European parliamentary candidate according to these rules, shall accept responsibility for the election expenses of the candidate so selected. - iii. Labour councillors and members must at all times avoid not only wrong-doing but also the perception of wrong-doing. Therefore if there is any uncertainty regarding whether a declaration of interest is appropriate, Labour councillors and members must take the most open course of action and declare an interest or disclose all relevant circumstances, taking advice if necessary.
 - iv. The statutory provisions relating to the declaration of pecuniary interests shall apply to full group meetings and other meetings of all or part of the Labour group (e.g. pre meetings). Councillors and group observers are required to take the appropriate actions in all those meetings in respect of any interest (e.g. an individual with a pecuniary interest in the item under discussion must declare that interest and leave the meeting while that item is under consideration).
 - v. Members of the Labour group in administration must comply with the provisions of the Local Government Finance Act 1988 and subsequent revisions and shall not vote against or abstain on a vote in full Council to set a legal budget proposed by the administration. Any councillor who votes against or abstains on a Labour group policy decision in this matter may face disciplinary action.
- B. To comply fully with the statutory ethical framework.
- i. Members of the Labour group must sign and abide by any codes of conduct as may be agreed by the local authority from time to time. All members must sign up to the local code within two months of it being adopted, or they cease to be a member of the council. Members of the Labour group must sign any other legal requirements relating to acceptance of office. Members must refer any wrong-doing by other members to the Group Whip and to the Relevant standards committee for England, Local Government Ombudsman in Wales or Standards Commission in Scotland, and/or local Standards Committee and the Group Whip should immediately consider appropriate action if any Labour councillor is referred to a Standards body.
 - ii. Should a standards body find against a member, an investigation be established to decide on the appropriate internal sanction.
- C. To accept the rules and standing orders of the Labour group.
- i. Members of the Labour group must register as members of the Labour group under the provisions of the Local Government (Committees & Political Groups) regulations 1990. Failure to do so within 14 days of a written request from an officer of the group or the Party's Governance and Legal Unit shall automatically render that person outside the group for all purposes and ineligible to be or remain a Party member (subject to the provisions of Chapter 6 A.2 above of the Party's disciplinary rules).
 - ii. Members of the Labour group shall agree in writing to abide by the rules and standing orders of the Labour group, as agreed at the annual meeting of the group. The general provisions of the constitution and rules of the Party shall apply to this group.
- D. To seek to the best of their ability to be effective and influential councillors.
- i. The Party expects its councillors to have at least minimum competencies in carrying out their public duties, and will intervene where political management leads to a failure in public service and performance of the authority, and where there is a lack of commitment displayed by leading members in the improvement agenda.
 - ii. Members of the Labour group also shall commit themselves to certain minimum duties and activities as councillors, as set out in guidance that shall be issued from time to time by the NEC. This shall include attendance at council meetings and other meetings of which you are a member, the holding of advice surgeries, attendance at consultative meetings in the ward, and regular communications with local residents.
 - iii. Members of the Labour group shall have a responsibility to take up such opportunities of training and development that may be provided by the council or the group or Party, in order better to carry out their activities as effective and influential councillors. Through their council duties and activities in the community, members of the Labour group should seek to promote Party policies and to represent and empower local people and communities, and act in a way that does not bring the Party into disrepute.

Clause III. Membership of the group

1. Members of the Labour group must be individual members of the Party with the subscriptions paid at the standard rate by continuous authority and must have been elected to and be eligible for membership of the local authority.
2. Members of the Labour group shall pay an annual levy to the Party of 2 per cent of their total income from council and joint body sources, in line with all elected representatives of the Party. For a Labour Group with ten or more members, or with an allowance amount of £1,000 or more, the elected representative levy shall be paid through a group contribution by a continuous payment method from group funds, the deduction being the figure notified to the Party by the group secretary by 6 September each year and taken in 5 instalments commencing September. Labour Groups with fewer than 10 members or an allowance of less than £1,000 may choose to pay either by a continuous payment method described above, or make a single payment in December.
3. For the purpose of effective and vibrant electoral organisation, members of the Labour group shall pay an annual contribution to the Labour group of a recommended minimum of 5 per cent of their total income from council and joint body sources, to cover group administration, communications and other appropriate activity. The amount and budget shall be determined by local circumstances, agreed by the group at its AGM and paid within 30 days of such agreement or on an equal monthly basis. Subject to the motion to be agreed at the AGM, members of the Labour group shall give the requisite authority to their council for payment of their due amounts through the council's payroll system if the council affords this facility.
4. Membership of the Labour group is dependent on payment of the elected representative levy and annual contribution to the Labour group. Members of the Labour group who fail to maintain payments under 1, 2 and 3 above, according to the rules of the Party and standing orders of the group shall have the whip automatically withdrawn, suspending them from membership of the Labour group until their membership of the Party and/or elected representative levy and/or contribution to the Labour group is reinstated.
5. No amount paid under 2 and 3 above nor any other subscription payment or other levy paid under this Clause III by or on account of being a member of the Labour group shall be refundable either in whole or in part to either the Labour group or a member by reason of a member leaving, being suspended or removed from the Labour group at any time for whatever reason.
6. For the purpose of maintaining contact between the Labour group and the appropriate Party Local Campaign Forum, representatives of the latter ('group observers') may attend group meetings; the number of group observers shall be locally determined but shall not exceed one third of the membership of the group up to a maximum of 6 members. Observers will have the right to speak on all matters coming before the group (subject to Clause II.1.B.i above) but shall not propose or second motions or amendments or vote. Group observers shall have access to all information under consideration by the group subject to any statutory or other conditions imposed on the council and individual councillors.
7. Accredited Party organisers within the area shall be ex-officio members of the group without voting power unless eligible under 1 above.
8. Attendance at group meetings shall be restricted to members of the Party referred to in these rules except at the special invitation of the group.
9. All those attending Labour group meetings shall abide by the ethical behaviour requirements as set out in Clause II.1.B above.

Clause IV. Group meetings

1. Ordinary meetings of the Labour group shall be held at an agreed time between the publication of the council agenda and the full meeting of the council, and on such other dates as may be agreed at the annual meeting.

2. The annual meeting of the group shall be held, on date/s to be determined, prior to the statutory annual meeting of the council, for the election of group officers, to make nominations to civic office, council leadership, executive and scrutiny positions, chair and vice chair of committees and to allocate members to committees. All groups shall follow NEC guidance on good practice in running annual group meetings (see the AGM Toolkit).

Clause V. Group officers

1. The Labour group shall appoint group officers at the annual meeting in accordance with the group standing orders, and in a manner that ensures equality of opportunity and encourages under-represented groups to come forward. As a minimum, the gender balance of the officer group will reflect the gender balance of the Labour group as a whole. Any deviation from this will require consent from your RD(GS).

Clause VI. Group executive

1. Where the Labour group chooses to appoint a group executive, the group shall do so at its annual meeting in accordance with the group standing orders, and in a manner that ensures equality of opportunity and encourages under-represented groups to come forward. As a minimum, the gender balance of the Labour group executive will reflect the gender balance of the Labour group as a whole. Any deviation from this will require consent from your RD(GS).

Clause VII. Casual vacancies

1. Casual vacancies among the group officers or in the executive shall be filled at an ordinary or other meeting of the group. Appropriate notice of an election shall be given.

Clause VIII. Determination of group policy and action

1. The local government election campaign strategy shall be determined by the local Party, normally the Local Campaign Forum in consultation with the Labour Group. The Labour Group shall formulate election manifestos in consultation with the local Party and relevant CLPs.

2. Labour group standing orders shall specify the matters on which it shall be the responsibility of the group to take decisions. The group and the local Party shall arrange a rolling programme of policy discussion and development during the year, where progress with the implementation of policy or any new developments that have arisen since the election manifesto was produced shall be discussed. The form of such a programme shall be jointly agreed by the Labour group and local Party
3. The policy of the Labour group shall be determined by the group meeting on the recommendation of the executive or otherwise. In cases of emergency, where action is required by motion or otherwise, such action may be taken by the executive that shall report its action for approval to the next group meeting. In cases of still greater urgency, which do not admit of delay, the leader of the group (or in the absence of the leader, a deputy), in consultation wherever possible with other officers, shall have power to act; such action to be reported to the next meeting of the group or group executive for approval.

Clause IX. Selection of nominations for civic offices, council leadership and other council appointments

1. The selection of nominations for civic offices, council leadership, chair and vice-chair of any committees and allocation of members to committees shall be made in accordance with the group standing orders, and in a manner that ensures equality of opportunity and encourages under-represented groups to come forward. The Party expects Labour cabinets to reflect the diversity of the area represented by the local authority as far as possible, and to discuss any failure to do so with the RD(GS). Where a vote for a nomination is necessary it shall be by secret ballot. The appropriate Local Campaign Forum of the Party shall have the right and opportunity to submit names for consideration, but formal nomination and selection shall be as specified in the group standing orders.

Clause X.

Arrangements with other parties

1. Where no one Party has an overall majority on the council, the group shall operate under guidance issued from time to time by the NEC. Labour groups must not enter into any arrangements with other parties or Independent directly elected Mayors, to determine the political control and management of the local authority, which do not comply with the NEC's approved options, and without the specific prior approval of the NEC. Groups and members must stand down from multi-Party arrangements on the instruction of the regional office, after discussion with the NEC.

Clause XI.

Action by individual members

1. Action by individual members of the Labour group shall conform to the group standing orders. Labour recognises that individual members, to fulfil their representative duties, may without consultation speak and ask questions in meetings of the council on behalf of their constituents or other community interests. Where the tendency of such interventions is likely to be in conflict with the policy of the group, it is the responsibility of the individual member to ensure that the relevant lead member of the group is consulted.
2. Individual members of the group are bound by Party policy and values, and should be committed to comradely behaviour. They should not issue publications, or maintain web sites, or speak to the press in a way which opposes Party policy or attacks other members of their group or members of groups in neighbouring or other tier authorities.
3. Where matters of conscience arise (e.g. religion, temperance) individual members of the group may abstain from voting provided they first raise the matter at a group meeting in order to ascertain the feeling of the group.
4. In matters where the council or its committees or sub-committees are acting in a quasi-judicial capacity (e.g. licensing of pubs, theatres and cinemas or the consideration of planning applications) or in the scrutiny process each member shall form his or her own judgement according to the evidence, and not be bound by a group whip. However, the member should have regard to their membership of the Party and seek to act in keeping with Party policy and values.

5. The demands of modern local government requires the Party to have regard to competency in considering the performance of its councillors, especially those in a leadership position, and may take action through the NEC to intervene to ensure effective political management and leadership, and a commitment to the improvement agenda.

Clause XII.

Groups on committees

1. The group standing orders shall specify how these rules may be applicable to Labour groups on, and members of, committees and sub-committees of the council including any co-opted members.

Clause XIII.

Breach of rule

1. Acceptance of these rules (as approved by the NEC) is a condition of membership of the Labour group on the council.
2. Where allegations of a breach of rule by a Labour councillor are made, action shall be taken in accordance with guidance provided from time to time by the NEC. The chief whip shall be responsible for the implementation of such guidance locally.
3. If, following any initial investigation, the group whip finds a serious breach of rule, it shall be competent for the group whip to be withdrawn for a specified period up to a maximum of six months or for an indefinite period, from any member who is in breach of these rules, such action to be initiated by the group whip who shall:
 - A. report to the officers of the group and the appropriate Party Local Campaign Forum who shall ensure that there is no Party discussion on the proposed action outside the procedure provided for in this rule until this procedure has been completed.
 - B. convene a joint meeting of the Labour group and the executive of the appropriate Party Local Campaign Forum at which upon due notice the matter shall be determined with the chair from the Labour Group and evidence taken in writing, from the defendant, and from witnesses as necessary).

4. Where the NEC determine there are exceptional circumstances, the NEC Disputes Panel shall be charged with the responsibility to undertake procedures relating to a breach of these rules, thus in such instant relieving the Labour group and Local Campaign Forum executive of such powers.
5. Withdrawal of whip
 - A. A decision to withdraw the whip shall take immediate effect but is subject to appeal within 14 days to the appeal panel of the Regional Executive Committee who shall hear the appeal within 14 days where practicable of receipt and whose decision shall be final.
 - B. Where a decision to withdraw the whip has been made by a panel of the NEC, an appeal may be made to the General Secretary of the Party within 14 days. The appeal shall be heard by a panel of not less than three members drawn from the NCC, who shall hear the appeal, within 28 days where practicable and whose decision shall be final.
6. Any member of the group who has had the group whip withdrawn shall at the time of such withdrawal be informed of their right to appeal. Once such appeal procedure, if any, has upheld a decision to withdraw the whip without a time limit being determined, the member concerned shall be ineligible to be or to be nominated as a Labour candidate or as a public representative at any level of election as long as s/he is not in receipt of that whip (this shall not apply when the suspension is for a fixed period). A member who has had the group whip withdrawn must remain registered as a member of the Labour group in accordance with Clause II.2.C above.
7. Any member who has had the whip withdrawn without a time limit being determined shall after six months be eligible to apply to the Labour group for re-admission. In such cases, the Labour group shall be responsible for restoration of the whip. Where the whip has been withdrawn by the NEC, application for restoration of the whip after six months shall be made to the NEC.
8. Where a member of the Labour group is alleged to have breached any element of the statutory ethical framework, the chief whip shall follow the guidance issued from time to time by the NEC in determining what action, if any, needs to be taken by the Labour group.

Clause XIV.

Reporting to and consulting with the Party

1. Members of the Labour group are entitled and encouraged to attend meetings of their constituency Party and appropriate local Party units. The group standing orders shall specify how the group and council leadership shall report to and consult with the appropriate local Party on a regular basis; the leader and deputy leader of the Labour Group, or other Group officer as determined by the Group shall be members of the LCF and its Executive Committee. The Party expects the group leadership to give a minimum of reports and hold a number of policy consultations within the year, to keep the Party informed of budgetary and service delivery issues, and other policy areas.
2. The provisions for consultation between the Party and Labour group set out in these rules and the model standing orders are the minimum arrangements required. Local Parties and groups are encouraged to secure the greatest possible degree of cooperation and consultation on all matters concerning local governance in their area.

Clause XV.

Group standing orders

1. Labour groups, in consultation with the Party's Governance and Legal Unit, shall adopt and follow the relevant model rules and standing orders issued from time to time by the NEC, according to the political management arrangements in operation in their local authority. These standing orders may be varied from time to time by the NEC.
2. Any insertions or proposed changes to Labour group rules or standing orders are subject to the prior approval of the NEC.

Clause XVI. Compliance with PPERA

1. Labour groups are members associations for the purposes of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 (PPERA). They do not form part of the central organisation of the Party or any of its accounting units, including any Local Campaign Forum, for those purposes. Group members shall ensure that they comply with their individual obligations, and that the group complies with its collective obligations, under PPERA, in particular in respect of political spending and donation reporting. Group members shall co-operate with the officers of other Party units to enable them to comply with their obligations under PPERA, in particular in respect of financial transfers between the group and/or group members and those other units. Should the group or any of its members fail to cooperate with any relevant Party unit in respect of any of its or their PPERA obligations, the NEC will take appropriate disciplinary action against individual members, suspend the group or both.

- iii. They are also contained within the Labour Group AGM Toolkit, issued annually to group secretaries

Clause XVII. Miscellaneous

1. Labour groups on joint boards, committees, on regional bodies and on local government associations shall adopt appropriate rules and standing orders in consultation with the Party's Local Government Unit and with the prior approval of the NEC.

3. Model standing orders for Labour groups

J. Procedural motions

- i. A motion of 'next business' shall not be taken until the mover and seconder of a motion have been heard. Any motion 'of next business', 'that the vote be taken', 'to adjourn', 'of no-confidence in the chair' shall be moved, seconded and put to the vote without discussion; after such a vote the chair need not accept a further procedural motion for a period of 20 minutes.

K. Motion to rescind resolution

- i. No motion to rescind a resolution of this body shall be valid within three months from the date on which the resolution was carried. Notice of rescinding motion must be given in writing and made available to those entitled to attend the relevant meeting in line with rule H above.

L. Voting on motions

- i. Voting shall be by show of hands except where the constitution of the Party provides for a ballot vote or where this body decides otherwise. In the event of there being an equality of votes on any matter decided by a show of hands, the chair may give a casting vote provided that s/he has not used an ordinary vote. If the chair does not wish to give a casting vote, the motion is not carried.

M. Ballot votes

- i. The election of officers and/ or representatives of this body shall be by secret paper eliminating ballot either in rounds or by preferential vote. The election of Executive Committee members or large delegations may be by secret paper ballot using a multiple vote where members may not cast more votes than the number of positions to be filled. Any quotas for women laid down in the Party constitution which apply to this body shall be incorporated in the arrangements for the secret ballot.

- ii. Ballot votes shall be held at meetings to select candidates and where otherwise provided for in the Party constitution; and where requested by any member supported by at least two others.
- iii. In the event of a tie on a secret paper ballot the chair shall not have a casting vote. Where appropriate, the ballot shall be retaken and in the event of a continual tie lots may be drawn. In a preferential ballot the tie shall be broken by establishing which candidate had the highest number of first preference votes or took the earliest lead on transfers.

N. Chair's ruling

- i. Any breach of or question to the rules or standing orders may be raised by a member rising to a point of order. The chair's ruling on any point arising from the rules or standing orders is final unless challenged by not less than four members; such a challenge shall be put to the meeting without discussion and shall only be carried with the support of two-thirds of the members present.

O. Miscellaneous

- i. Party meetings and events shall be conducted in a friendly and orderly manner and organised in such a way as to maximise participation from members. No member shall be precluded from attendance because they cannot gain access to the meeting place for any reason. Harassment or intimidation of any member is unacceptable as is any form of discrimination on the basis of gender, age, sexual orientation and gender identity, disability or race. Smoking is not permitted at any Party meeting.
- ii. Any member acting in an unruly or disruptive manner, in contravention of the standing orders, may be removed from the meeting by action of the chair. The chair shall put such a motion to the meeting, which to be carried shall require the support of two-thirds of those present and voting. Any member who has been removed from two meetings during a 12-month period shall, with the approval of the appropriate RD(GS), be ineligible to attend meetings of this body for the next 12 months.

- iii. This Party unit accepts the principle of minimum quotas for women at all levels of representation within the Party and shall take steps to ensure that 50 per cent of any delegation shall be women and, where only one delegate is appointed, a woman shall hold the position at least every other year.

- iv. The general provisions of the constitution and rules of the Party shall apply to this body. No changes shall be made to the rules and standing orders of this organisation except at an annual or special meeting called for this purpose and carried with the support of two-thirds of the members present. No alteration shall be effective until it has received the approval of the appropriate officer of the NEC of the Party.

APPENDICES

Appendix 1

NEC statement on the importance of our members

Labour is a democratic socialist Party which believes that social change comes from a combination of progressive government at the centre and community action. We do not believe that social change can be delivered solely by a top-down approach.

That means that we value the role of our members and our affiliated members as progressive campaigners, community activists and social entrepreneurs who forge positive change in their own neighbourhoods as well as shaping and promoting national policy.

It is our members who can inspire and engage local people and communities.

Together our members and affiliates can create a Party that is truly reflective of the communities we serve; a Party able to turn outwards and find innovative and flexible ways to encourage contact and support from local communities, drawing in those who share Labour's values, and therefore bringing a range of skills and experience into its work. Our members and our affiliated members are invaluable as Labour activists in building our electoral support, arguing our case, in ensuring a local Labour presence in every constituency, and in being an agent for change locally, nationally, and internationally.

Members enjoy the formal democratic rights of Party membership as stated within the rules. Party members have the right to participate in the formal process of the Party, vote at Party meetings, stand for Party office and elected office as stated within the rules.

The Labour Party will support members seeking selection to Parliament and take action to encourage a greater level of representation and participation of groups of people in our society who are currently under-represented in our democratic institutions. In particular, the Party will introduce a scheme to seek to increase working class representation and select more candidates who reflect the full diversity of our society in terms of gender, race, sexual orientation and disability.

Many Labour supporters are also progressive campaigners, community activists and social entrepreneurs who forge positive change in their own neighbourhoods. We value this contribution and should embrace their activism. We need dialogue and to work in partnership with our Labour supporters. The Party's organisation needs to match the way people live and reach out beyond its membership to our Labour supporters. Staying permanently in touch with our supporters, our local communities and the voters we seek to serve will mean we stay in government and are always a contender for government.

Our members will therefore ensure we have strong local parties who will:

- reach out into our communities beyond our existing membership base
- engage with local trade unions and community groups to reach out to supporters and potential new members
- empower local leadership as the key to leading change
- be seen as the engines of change in our communities
- work in a way that is open and welcoming for members and supporters
- work in a way that better reflects the priorities of the communities in which we are based
- ensure Labour is a focal point for local campaigns and community activism
- ensure there is a Labour presence in every locality
- embrace the community activism that exists across the country
- inform and encourage support for progressive politics and policies
- actively engage with those who share our values and who are working for improvements
- be seen by local people as somewhere that local concerns can be addressed, and where people can go to help them achieve change.

Labour supporters will enjoy informal involvement and participation: the ability to be informed, to join with us at election times to promote Labour candidates, to be invited to local and national events, to hear speakers and question government ministers, to engage at appropriate points with our policy-making processes. Labour Supporters will be encouraged to join the Party as full members.

Appendix 2

NEC procedural guidelines on membership recruitment and retention

Addendum to Chapter 2 Labour Party rulebook 2007 (amendment as agreed by NEC July 2006)

1. This Code of Conduct covers the recruitment and retention of members of the Party, and the procedures and practices to be followed. These guidelines are to be read in conjunction with the Party rules on Membership in Chapter 2 of the Party Rule Book.

A. General

- i. Individual members of the Party shall be recruited into membership in accordance with these guidelines either by the appropriate branch, constituency, national or regional Party, or by personal application.
- ii. All recruitment to the Party shall be in accordance with these guidelines on membership recruitment which shall be issued to Party and affiliated organisations from time to time, and need to be read in conjunction with section two of the Party rules on Membership.
- iii. The Party is anxious to encourage the recruitment of new members and to ensure that new members are properly welcomed into the Party and opportunities offered to enable their full participation in all aspects of Party life.
- iv. The Party is, however, concerned that no individual or faction should recruit members improperly in order to seek to manipulate our democratic procedures.
- v. The health and democracy of the Party depends on the efforts and genuine participation of individuals who support the aims of the Party, wish to join the Party and get involved with our activities. The recruitment of large numbers of 'paper members', who have no wish to participate except at the behest of others in an attempt to manipulate Party processes, undermines our internal democracy and is unacceptable to the Party as a whole.

B. Enrolment procedures

- i. The following enrolment procedures shall apply to applications for membership:
 - a. An application to become an individual member:
 1. may be submitted on a membership application form by the individual, by the appropriate Constituency Labour Party (CLP), or by (in the case of an application for registered membership) an affiliated organisation.
 2. may be made by telephone or through the Party web site.
- ii. Membership application forms must be signed where required by the applicant and sent to the General Secretary at the Head Office of the Party together with the membership fee. Where membership forms do not require a signature, or where an application is made by telephone or through the Party web site, the applicant shall be deemed to have agreed to abide by the rules and standing orders of the Party which are available on request or from the web-site.
- iii. The payment must be submitted in a form acceptable to the NEC. The General Secretary shall arrange for the applicant's details to be recorded on the national membership list as a provisional member.
- iv. Applications for registered membership may be checked with the affiliated organisation concerned to confirm that the political levy or subscription has been in payment for at least 12 months.
- v. If an application is received without a membership fee, or the payment is in a form unacceptable to the NEC, the applicant shall be immediately informed of the requirement to pay a fee before the application can be processed.
- vi. An applicant shall be issued with an acknowledgement of provisional membership and the details of the constituency in which s/he resides and any available information about the local Party secretaries.
- vii. Provisional membership rights commence from the date of production of the acknowledgement following the receipt of the application and the appropriate membership subscription. A provisional member shall only have the right to attend branch meetings in a non-voting capacity.

- viii. The CLP concerned shall be informed by the General Secretary of the application for membership. Any objection to any application for membership may be made by the CLP to the General Secretary within eight weeks of this notification. Such objection may only be made by the General Meeting or Executive Committee of the CLP concerned, though such objection may initially be made on a provisional basis by a Party officer, pending further enquiries. Where there is a provisional objection within eight weeks of notification, a further four weeks may be allowed for an objection to be made, and in such circumstances the applicant will be written to by the national Party informing them of the extension to the period of objection.
- ix. Subject to sub paragraph (viii) above, if no objection is received by the General Secretary within eight weeks of the notification in (viii) above, and the membership fee has been received by the General Secretary the applicant shall be deemed to be a full Party member.
- x. At any time before the individual is accepted as a full member of the Party, the General Secretary may rule that the individual application for membership be rejected for any reason which s/he sees fit.
- xi. In the absence of any notice of objection from the CLP as in (viii) above, and/or any ruling by the General Secretary as in (x) above, the applicant shall, on the expiry of eight weeks from the notification in (viii) above, become a full member. The provisional member shall then be transferred to the national membership list as a full member as soon as is practicable.
- xii. The reasons for the rejection of an application for membership by the General Secretary or the objection by the CLP to the application for membership must be sent to the individual applicant at the address given. S/he shall have the right of individual written appeal to the NEC. Such appeal shall be considered and dealt with by the Disputes Panel of the NEC in any manner in which it shall see fit and the decision of the Disputes Panel once approved by the NEC shall be final and binding on the CLP, branch Party, the General Secretary and the individual concerned.

C. Special Measures

- i. In a constituency deemed to be in 'special measures' the Party will request additional information from all applicants directly. All new applicants will be asked to supply at least two additional forms of identification as proof of name and address. These may take the form of photocopies of utility bills, council tax, benefit notifications, passport, driving licence, student ID etc. Non-permanent ID should be dated within 6 months of the application. The Party reserves the right to ask to see the original document rather than a photocopy.
- ii. The Party will also check whether the applicant is on the electoral register at the address given for membership, and where this is not the case the applicant will need to lodge a claim for registration or provide evidence of ineligibility to register (e.g. not old enough) or evidence that they have an anonymous registration (some people may register anonymously if they have good reason for their details to be not published). This information must be provided within 8 weeks of the date of the letter of request.
- iii. If after 4 weeks, the Party has received no response, it will write to members again giving final notice that in a further 4 weeks the individuals will be removed from the membership system unless information is provided
- iv. All new members will be required to pay using a continuous payment method at the appropriate rate. Payment must be from their own bank account unless there are exceptional circumstances.
- v. Once all required documents are received the Party will have a maximum of 8 weeks in which to respond to applicants. This will include a check by the CLP that where reduced rates are applied for, additional evidence to support this will be required; this may include trade union membership card, JSA confirmation, wage slip or other appropriate documentation.
- vi. If no response is provided within this timeframe the applicant will be admitted into membership.

- vii. In circumstances where individuals fail to meet any of these criteria the application will be considered to be incomplete and will not be progressed further.
- viii. Membership will be audited annually to ensure that individual's membership remains in compliance.
- ix. CLPs in special measures will be reviewed on a 6 monthly basis by the Governance and Legal Unit to ensure that all processes are kept up to date and CLPs do not remain in special measures longer than necessary.

D. Move of residence

- i. In the event of a member moving residence to another constituency that member shall immediately inform Head Office who shall transfer the member to the relevant constituency and inform that CLP. If a transferring member makes contact with their new CLP with proof of membership, the appropriate CLP officer shall inform Head Office.
- ii. Membership rights within the new constituency shall commence from the date on which the transfer is recorded by Head Office unless an objection to the acceptance of the transfer is raised within eight weeks of the transfer date. Where there is a provisional objection within eight weeks of notification, a further four weeks may be allowed for an objection to be made, and in such circumstances the applicant will be written to by the national Party informing them of the extension to the period of objection.
- iii. In the case of an objection the member concerned has the right of individual appeal to the NEC, whose decision shall be final.
- iv. In the event of a member moving to another branch in the same constituency that member shall inform the new branch secretary and provide evidence of membership. Head Office shall be informed of the change of address.

E. Method of Payment

- i. Members are advised to pay their subscriptions directly to Head Office. However, payments may be made by local collection. Members may opt to pay subscriptions by means of regular contributions throughout the year or a number of years in advance by arrangement with Head Office. All membership fees shall be divided between the national and constituency parties in the ratio prescribed under section 2 of this clause as they are received at Head Office.

- ii. Subscriptions paid through local collectors may be deemed as having been received by the Party only when such payments arrive at Head Office. It shall be regarded as an act grossly detrimental to the Party to withhold membership payments collected locally.

F. Membership year

- i. A membership year shall be defined as 12 months from the date of joining the Party. All members shall be issued with a card supplied by the NEC which shall indicate the expiry of their membership year and the subscription rate paid.

G. Arrears and lapsed members

- i. An individual member shall be deemed to be in arrears from the expiry date until they renew their subscription.
- ii. An individual member shall be deemed to have lapsed from membership if s/he has been in arrears for six months and has not paid following a request to pay the arrears.
- iii. Once lapsed, previous members may reactivate their membership by paying the current minimum annual subscription, subject to the endorsement procedure in 1.B above.
- iv. Following such endorsement the General Secretary may agree to grant continuous membership to cover the lapsed period on the payment of any outstanding subscriptions for that period by the member concerned. In coming to a decision on granting continuity the General Secretary may refer the matter to the disputes panel of the NEC whose decision shall be final in all cases.
- v. Where it is clear there has been an administrative processing error, continuity of membership will be granted to lapsed members on payment of arrears and current subscription.
- vi. Continuity of membership shall only be granted in exceptional circumstances and not in any instance where a member has been lapsed for longer than 12 months.
- vii. Where there is agreement between the CLP and the Party that there were special circumstances which led to a member being inadvertently lapsed, continuity of membership will be granted on payment of arrears plus authorisation of direct debit mandate for future payments.

viii. No person deemed to have lapsed from membership shall have any rights to participate in Party decision-making until membership has been fully reactivated. Members in arrears may only participate on the basis that they intend to renew their membership within the given period.

H. Procedural code for CLPs

i. Applications could be regarded as falling into the following broad categories:

a. Those who volunteer to pay the full subscription rate.

1. CLPs should check the constitutional requirements on:

- a. electoral registration
- b. trade union membership

2. Providing any questions on these can be resolved and there are no other local objections, members in this category should be 'inducted' as soon as possible.

b. Those who claim 'reduced-rate' or 'levy-plus' status. For these applications a more rigorous check may be considered necessary:

1. electoral registration in the constituency is a requirement of Party rules, except in special circumstances. A check of the register that reveals non-registration should be followed up with an enquiry to seek an explanation* and to obtain a claim for registration where appropriate. If no satisfactory explanation is received then membership should be withheld.

2. if the applicant is on the electoral register then the following may also be pursued:

a. 'reduced-rate' applicants – is the category for which membership is claimed clear, and does this require any further verification? If so, an explanation should be sought and an assurance of good faith from the applicant obtained where appropriate.

b. 'levy-plus' applicants – is 'levy-plus' status verified by the affiliated organisation concerned? If not, the application shall be referred to the affiliate to confirm this and if unconfirmed the applicant should be invited to pay full subscription.

ii. If the above conditions are met then the application shall be accepted subject to any other local objection. CLPs must note that it is their responsibility to make any local checks deemed necessary. If branches are to be involved in the process this must be done within the eight week auto-endorsement period, unless an extension of four weeks has been granted as in B(viii) or C(ii) above, as referral to a branch shall not on its own be accepted as a reason to delay auto-endorsement.

I. Follow-up procedures by CLPs

i. Any CLP facing large numbers of applications at the 'reduced' or 'levy-plus' rates is likely to require a team of people willing and able to carry through the recommended checks. Where there are ethnic minority applicants, it is helpful that this team should include members who understand the languages and culture of the communities involved. In any case the team should act in a 'women friendly' and non-intimidating manner.

ii. This team, through the membership secretary, would benefit from developing a good working relationship with the Membership Processing Assistant who deals with the processing for the particular constituency, the efficient follow-through of the monthly report would help in early identification and speedy resolution of any problems. The NEC takes the view that the eight week endorsement period is ample to carry out local checks in the vast majority of cases. The eight weeks may be extended in certain cases, such as election periods or holiday periods, but only where the CLP has identified a particular problem.

iii. The investigating team should also be involved in arranging proper induction for new members which would involve explanatory material on the operation of the Party locally and encouragement to become involved both politically and socially. All parties should organise 'new member' evenings and other activities aimed at involving recent applicants in their work.

- iv. It is important that the above process is seen as an opportunity to explain the Party's rules and requirements and to involve potential activists, not simply as a blocking mechanism. It is clear, however, that the NEC shall support any CLP, which operates the checking procedures as outlined and has thereby identified any abuse of the membership system.

J. Access to membership lists

- i. The following members shall have access to membership lists:
 - a. For CLP's: Vice Chair/Membership and CLP Secretary, or other designated CLP officers
 - b. For Branches: Secretary or other designated branch officer
 - c. For LCF's: Secretary or other designated LCF officer, where required for selection purposes
 - d. MP's, MEP's, members of devolved bodies, elected mayors, councillors, Labour Group leaders on principal authorities, for the area they represent
 - e. Members of Party staff appointed by the NEC
- ii. Misuse of information contained within the membership lists could be a breach of the Data Protection Act, and should be reported immediately to the Data Protection Officer at Head Office.

Appendix 3

NEC procedures for the selection of Parliamentary Candidates following the boundary review commenced 2016

Clause I.

Introduction & Background

1. UK parliamentary constituency boundaries are being reviewed by the Boundary Commissions prior to the next scheduled general election in May 2020.
2. The Party will adopt a national position that will be outlined in the Party's submissions to the Boundary Commissions' consultation.
3. Sitting MPs and CLP representatives will be consulted as part of the process for agreeing a final position to be signed off by the NEC. Once agreed, all parts of the Party are expected to support the national position.
4. Following the publication of revised proposals for new boundaries in late 2016, the Party will begin the process of reforming CLPs and selecting parliamentary candidates.
5. The following section sets out the procedures for selections of parliamentary candidates among sitting MPs following the boundary review.
6. The first round of selections of parliamentary candidates for the new constituencies shall be concerned with resolving claims based on territorial interests among sitting Labour MPs.
7. Once those claims are resolved, the NEC shall determine the process for filling vacancies in notional Labour seats where territorial claims have not been exercised. This is the second round of selections.
8. In so doing, the NEC may, at its discretion, ensure that sitting Labour MPs who have been displaced following the first round of selections are guaranteed the right to apply and be short listed for at least one new constituency being contested in the second round where they do not have a territorial interest.
9. The NEC understands that this boundary review, which is inspired by the partisan aims of the present government, will cause significant disruption to traditional patterns of representation. However, the NEC values unity and collective action, and urges all Labour representatives to meet this political challenge in a spirit of solidarity.
10. All other parliamentary candidate selections will take place according to the standard procedures, as far as possible in an order of priority based on 'win-ability' within Party regions as determined by the RD(GS), unless otherwise authorised by the NEC.

Clause II. Trigger ballots of sitting MPs

1. Sitting MPs who do not have constituency boundary changes shall face a trigger vote in their existing constituency unless otherwise determined by the NEC. If, by the date set, a majority of those Party units and affiliated branches (that make an indication) indicate a preference not to proceed to a full selection process, the MP concerned shall be deemed to be selected as prospective parliamentary candidate for the constituency concerned subject to NEC endorsement.
2. If a majority of Party units and affiliated branches (that make an indication) determine that they wish the ballot to be opened up then a full open selection will be postponed until Phase IV of the trigger ballots (as per 3.F.iv below) has been completed.
3. Where sitting MP's have constituency boundary changes:
 - A. The General Secretary will invite sitting MPs to indicate which, if any, constituencies they wish to seek selection for. MPs who do not have any territorial interest in a seat cannot be considered for selection for a seat that has an MP(s) with a territorial interest seeking re-selection, unless the decision of the CLP in the trigger ballot is to move to an open selection.
 - B. An MP with a substantial territorial interest in a new constituency may seek selection for that constituency as a matter of right.
 - C. For the purposes of reselection, a substantial territorial interest is defined as 40 per cent or more of registered electors of the previous parliamentary constituency as at the freeze date transferring to the new parliamentary constituency.

- D. Any sitting MP who has a territorial interest in a new parliamentary constituency, but not to the extent of 40 per cent, may nonetheless at the discretion of the NEC seek selection for that parliamentary constituency.
- E. In exercising that discretion, the NEC shall guarantee that any sitting MP who has no substantial territorial interest in any new constituency has the right to seek selection for the new constituency in which they have their greatest territorial interest.
- F. Any sitting MP representing any part of a new constituency and therefore with a territorial interest should be informed of the timetable and the procedure and be supplied with a list of secretaries of nominating organisations. Ballots for resolving territorial claims in the first round of selections shall, where possible, be conducted in four phases as follows:
- i. Phase I - two MPs seeking selection in a seat where they both have a substantial territorial interest.
 - a. Where two MPs with a substantial territorial interest (40 per cent or more) are seeking selection in the same constituency, a OMOV postal ballot of eligible members will determine which, if any, is selected as the final candidate.
 - b. If, however, 50 per cent or more of the eligible members casting a vote determine that they would prefer the ballot to be opened up to a full selection, then a full open selection will take place once Phase IV of the trigger ballots has been completed.
 - ii. Phase II - selections where more than one MP with a territorial interest expresses an interest in a seat, and at least one of the MPs' interests is NOT a substantial territorial interest.
 - a. MPs with a substantial territorial interest and/or those with less than a 40 per cent substantial territorial interest whom the NEC has determined can contest the selection will go forward to a OMOV postal ballot of eligible members to determine which, if any, is selected as the final candidate.
 - b. If, however, 50 per cent or more of the eligible members casting a vote determine that they would prefer the ballot to be opened up to a full selection, then a full open selection will take place once Phase IV of the trigger ballots has been completed.
 - iii. Phase III - one MP only seeking selection in a seat in which they have a substantial territorial interest.
 - a. Subject to paragraphs D and E above, if only one MP has a substantial territorial interest in the new constituency and is nominated by a majority of Party units and affiliated organisations as set out in paragraph 2 above, the MP concerned shall be deemed to be selected subject to endorsement by the NEC. If however, the one MP with a substantial territorial interest fails to reach a majority of Party units and affiliated organisations then a full open selection will be postponed until Phase IV of the trigger ballots has been completed.
 - iv. Phase IV - one MP seeking selection in a seat in which they have less than a substantial territorial interest.
 - a. If only one MP with less than a 40 per cent substantial territorial interest in the new parliamentary constituency, who has the permission of the NEC to contest the selection trigger ballot, is nominated by a majority of Party units and affiliated organisations as set out in paragraph 2 above, the MP concerned shall be deemed to be selected subject to endorsement by the NEC.
 - b. If however, the one MP with less than a substantial territorial interest fails to reach a majority of Party units and affiliated organisations then a full open selection will be postponed until Phase IV of the trigger ballots has been completed.
4. Hustings meeting/s will be held, and canvassing allowed, at all those selections involving more than one MP based on a OMOV postal ballot of eligible members.
5. Sitting MPs who have been re-selected through this process shall not be eligible to seek selection in any other constituency, except where there are exceptional circumstances which are agreed by the NEC. The NEC will issue procedural guidelines on the management of trigger ballots and OMOV postal ballots outlined above.

Clause III. Timetable for parliamentary selections among sitting MPs

1. The following timescale is an outline of events as agreed by the NEC, and will be subject to alteration by the NEC according to the situation pertaining at any given time.

Date	Event
Jan 2018	Invitations for expressions of interest sent to sitting MPs – deadline end of Jan/early Feb Determine list of non-Labour held seats with no existing MP with a territorial claim – These seats select from July 2018
Jan–Mar18	Reorganise CLPs
Mar–Jul18	Begin trigger ballots and selections of sitting MPs (round one) Once completed, begin selections in notional vacant constituencies (round two) and all other seats where there is no candidate (round three)
Dec 2018	Aim for all selections to be commenced

Clause IV. Freeze dates

1. Where there is a re-selection process for a sitting Labour MP(s) immediately following the boundary review, the freeze date for registered electors –for the purposes of calculating territorial interests – shall be 1 December 2015. The freeze date for individual membership eligibility and constituency delegates and affiliations shall be the date at which the designated representative meets with the executive committee (General Committee/All Member meeting if no executive is in place) to draw up a timetable. Where the NEC determines there are special circumstances, or when there is an unforeseen delay to the commencement of the process, a different freeze date for the membership and affiliates may be fixed by the NEC.

2. For the purposes of all other selections, freeze dates for individual membership eligibility and constituency delegates and affiliations shall be established in agreement with the RD(GS). All affiliations and delegations to CLPs and membership lists to be used in the course of this procedure shall be frozen at these dates together with the percentage of the CLP membership contained within each Party branch. In deciding on a freeze-date to establish eligibility to participate, the RD(GS) shall have regard to the state of membership of the CLP and any prima facie evidence of abuse of the code of conduct for membership recruitment and any other factors which the RD(GS) may think relevant.
3. No new or increased affiliations or filling of vacancies in delegations may be accepted for the purposes of this procedure after the freeze date until the selection is completed – except for changes of Labour Party Branch Secretaries.
4. Any new Party unit or affiliated organisation established after the freeze date shall not be allowed representation on the General Committee during the selection procedure.

Appendix 4

NEC Procedures for the selection of local government Candidates

These procedural rules supplement Chapter 5 of the Party rule book – selections for election to public office, and provide a framework for Local Campaign Forums (LCFs) and Constituency Labour Parties (CLPs) to follow when conducting selections of local government candidates.

Local Campaign Forums and CLPs must also follow the good practice advice on these procedures as provided from time to time by the NEC.

A. Selection timetable

- i. The executive of the Local Campaign Forum ('LCF') shall prepare a timetable for the selection procedure. All timetables and/or any variance to any of the selection procedures must be approved by the RD(GS) or other national officer as determined by the General Secretary on behalf of the NEC.
- ii. The timetable should be set so that, as far as possible, candidates are selected six months in advance of the election (12 months where the council elects on a two or four yearly cycle).
- iii. The timetable should identify various stages as follows:
 - a. invitation for nominations to the panel of approved candidates
 - b. initial closing date for receipt of nominations
 - c. proposed interviewing procedure for those who require an interview
 - d. date of LCF to decide on endorsement of initial applications
 - e. submission of initial list of approved nominees ('the panel') to CLPs and ward selection committees
 - f. the agreed order for selection meetings (i.e. first priority to Labour seats, second to winnable seats and last to other seats)
 - g. date for reopening of endorsement procedure, where this is appropriate□

- h. final date for completion of selections.
- iv. The panel remains in existence following an election until a new panel is nominated and endorsed. The panel is therefore available for any by-elections in this period. This later date (iii.g above) is so that LCFs can plan for a period without new endorsements whilst high priority selections are taking place. The panel cannot be closed as such so all nominations must be dealt with at an appropriate time.

B. Positive action procedures

- i. For authorities with all-out elections
 - a. The Regional Director (or General Secretary in Scotland and Wales) will agree a list of winnable wards with the LCF
 - b. In winnable wards with two or three members, at least one candidate must be a woman
 - c. For selection in a winnable ward, the ballot will take place in two parts. The first ballot will select a woman from the shortlist and the second ballot will select the remaining candidates from the entire shortlist.
 - d. If the ward fails to implement these positive action procedures then the selection will be invalid and the RD(GS) will require the ward to re-run its selection procedures.
- ii. For authorities with elections where one third or one half of seats are up for election
 - a. In all winnable wards/divisions where a sitting councillor is retiring, at least one other councillor or candidate must be a woman.
 - b. If there are more women retirees than men then the current proportion of women candidates must be maintained.
- iii. For each local authority area the RD(GS) will:
 - a. agree a list of winnable seats with the LCF; and
 - b. determine which winnable seats will be selected from an all-woman

- shortlist and which from an open shortlist.
- c. If a ward fails to implement the agreed positive action procedure then the selection will be invalid and the RD(GS) will require that the ward to re-run its selection process.
 - iv. The RD(GS) has the authority to vary the arrangements within a given ward due to what they regard as exceptional circumstances, provided reciprocal arrangements are made to ensure that the overall level of women's representation is achieved.
- C. Panel of approved candidates
- i. The LCF will invite nominations for the Panel of Candidates which will be in the form of self-nominations using an official nomination form produced by the LCF. The form may include a number of questions (as well as a section for personal details) as approved by the LCF executive, but must include an undertaking to abide by the Party's rules and procedures relating to local government candidature and by the standing orders for the Labour group if elected.
 - ii. The LCF must ensure that all eligible members are informed of their right to self-nominate to the panel of approved candidates together with details of the timetable described in section 1 above.
- D. Qualification of nominees
- i. Each nominee must be an individual member of the Party, in accordance with the conditions of membership which include, where applicable, membership of an appropriate trade union.
 - ii. Each nominee must have paid the Party membership contribution at the appropriate rate and have at least 12 months' continuous national individual membership of the Party in the electoral area concerned at the date of nomination. This 12 month continuous membership and residency qualification may be waived in exceptional circumstances to be decided by the LCF and endorsed by the RD(GS) on behalf of the NEC.
 - iii. All nominees must undertake, if elected, to accept and conform to the standing orders of the appropriate Labour group as approved by the NEC.
 - iv. Nominees must be legally qualified, and not disqualified, to stand for the local authority at the election concerned. It is required of LCFs that they take steps to check on disqualifications under the relevant legislation as well as any Party requirements when compiling their panel of prospective candidates.
 - v. Sitting councillors must be nominated and considered for endorsement and selection in accordance with the provisions set out in section E.ii.A.1 below, unless varied by section F.i.A. below.
 - vi. If a sitting councillor, the nominee must also have paid their annual elected representatives levy, and be fully paid up to date with their Party membership subscriptions at the standard rate and pay by direct debit.
 - vii. Sitting councillors who have had the Labour group whip withdrawn from them indefinitely are not eligible for membership of any panel.
 - viii. This Party shall not accept as qualified for inclusion in its panel of approved candidates any sitting councillor whose sole legal qualification for standing for election in the local government area is existing service as a councillor.
- E. Endorsement of applicants to the panel of approved candidates
- i. All applicants recommended for inclusion in its panel of candidates must be submitted to a meeting of the LCF concerned.
 - ii. There are three ways that applicants will be considered for membership of the approved panel of candidates. The particular method of approval depends upon the individual circumstances of the applicant as set out below:
 - a. Sitting councillor
 1. To be reviewed by a written form from the chief whip regarding discipline and attendance, and by a written report from the branch secretary covering the ward they represent. An update form should be completed should circumstances have changed since a previous application form was completed. The LCF Officers, or a panel duly authorised by the LCF, may request an interview if the reports raise concerns about discipline, attendance, campaigning record or competence. An interview shall be undertaken at least once every two terms for sitting councillors, and an RD(GS) may determine all councillors in any authority should be interviewed each time they seek reselection. Should they feel the circumstance dictate, the RD(GS) may instruct the LCF that an interview is undertaken and must give such reasons in writing. Should an interview not be requested, the sitting councillor will be recommended for inclusion on the panel without interview. Should an interview be required, this will be undertaken by an assessment team.

b. Recent candidate who had not been elected

1. To be reviewed by a written report confirming there has been no change in circumstances and updating the applicant's campaign and Party record. It will require an endorsement of the application by the branch in which they reside and the CLP campaign coordinator or similar officer. The LCF Officers, or a panel duly authorised by the LCF, may request an interview if the report raises concerns about their campaigning record or competence. Should they feel the circumstance dictate, the RD(GS) may instruct the LCF that an interview is undertaken and must give such reasons in writing. Should an interview not be requested, the applicant will be recommended for inclusion on the panel without interview. Should an interview be required, this will be undertaken by an assessment team.

c. New applicant

1. By completion of the nomination form and a full interview by an assessment team.
- iii. An assessment team, which will be drawn up by the LCF with the agreement of the RD(GS) in line with NEC recommendations, will carry out interviews for applicants where required. At the discretion of the RD(GS), the assessment team may be required to include assessors from outside of the local authority area. Assessment teams are required to include chairs who are Party members from outside of the local authority area. Assessment team members may not interview or assess any candidate who is their own husband, wife, civil partner, parent, grandparent, brother, sister, child, grandchild or other close family member.

- iv. The assessment team will supply a decision sheet to each nominee following their assessment interview. The assessment team will prepare a report for the LCF on which candidates they are recommending to endorse. The LCF may refuse endorsement as it thinks fit to any candidate recommended for acceptance by the assessment team, on a secret ballot of eligible delegates at a duly notified meeting. The suitability of candidates for endorsement is a matter of judgement by members of the LCF. Candidates not endorsed by the assessment team will be given reasons for such decision.
- v. The LCF shall not endorse any candidate the assessment team have interviewed and not recommended for endorsement. However, the individual concerned (or the organisation responsible for their nomination) may appeal within 14 days of receiving written notice against the refusal of the assessment team or LCF endorsement to the appeals panel of the appropriate regional board, who where practicable shall hear the appeal within 14 days.
- vi. Such appeals shall be to establish the suitability or otherwise of the nominee for inclusion in the panel of candidates and on this basis the panel established to hear the appeal shall consider submissions from the appellant and representatives of the LCF concerned. The panel shall receive any submissions from both sides in the presence of the other and, within reason, witnesses may be called to support the submissions. A reasonable opportunity shall be given for witnesses and submissions to be questioned by either side. The panel may conduct the appeal hearing as a re-interview should they consider this is required by the circumstances. Should any appeal be conducted by the panel as a re-interview then, in the absence of any express decision to the contrary by the panel, the result of such a re-interview shall constitute the final determination of the appeal. When an appeal hearing against withdrawal of endorsement is heard, the hearing may be conducted where the panel consider it appropriate solely in relation to the changed circumstances leading to the LCF withdrawal of endorsement. The panel shall also rule on any procedural issues. The decision of the appeals panel shall be final and binding on all parties in accordance with the rules for local government selections. The reasons for the decision shall remain confidential to the panel concerned.

F. Authority to vary assessment procedures

- i. The RD(GS) may, with the agreement of the LCF and the endorsement of the NEC, vary the assessment procedures in the following ways:
 - a. waive section E.ii.A.i above and/or section E.ii.B.i above to allow for all recent candidates to be interviewed before endorsement;
 - b. waive the requirement in section E.ii.A.i or E.ii.B.i above for the branch secretaries to submit a written report to the LCF if this is not appropriate due to local circumstances. Such a waiver shall apply for all applicants.

G. Withdrawal of endorsement from a member of the approved panel

- i. The LCF may withdraw its endorsement of any nominee if, in its opinion, there are changed circumstances relating to that nominee including failure to meet the requirements of the candidate's contract. Again, the individual concerned (or the organisation responsible for her/his nomination) may appeal within 14 days of receiving written notice against such withdrawal of endorsement to the appeals panel of the regional board who where practicable shall hear the appeal within 14 days on the same basis as in section E.vi above.

H. Rights and responsibilities of members of the approved panel of candidates

- i. Potential candidates who are on the approved panel of candidates are entitled to a list of ward secretaries from the Secretary of the LCF. Once shortlisted by a ward, potential candidates will be entitled to a list of eligible members for that ward from the CLP Secretary. In order to receive this list, potential candidates will have to pay the relevant CLP an administration charge as set out in the code of conduct.

- ii. The NEC maintains a code of conduct that applies to all candidates at all stages of this process including candidates applying to the panel of approved candidates.
- I. Shortlisting and selection
 - i. Insufficient nominations
 - a. In the event of an insufficient number of valid nominations, the LCF executive shall have power to take whatever action may be necessary to meet the situation and ensure that there are Labour candidates available to contest any election to the appropriate authority.
 - b. In cases of dispute the matter shall be submitted to the LCF whose decision shall be final.
 - ii. Shortlisting and selection meetings – general
 - a. Shortlisting and selection meetings shall be convened by the Executive Committee of the CLP concerned after consultation with and in accordance with the timetable (referred to in A.iii.F above) laid down by the executive of the LCF. This is to ensure that meetings are convened on a priority basis so that candidates are selected first for Labour-held and winnable seats.
 - b. Notice of such meetings must be sent to all members entitled to attend. The notice shall state the business to be conducted and give appropriate details of the procedure to be adopted.
 - c. Notice of such meeting shall include notice of any positive action procedures as agreed under section B above, i.e. whether at least one woman candidate is to be selected or the candidate will be selected from an all-woman shortlist
 - d. Notice of such meetings shall be sent out at least seven days in advance, except in an emergency where the LCF executive has approved a contracted timetable for a particular selection.

- e. Where only one branch is involved, notices shall be sent out by the branch secretary on the instructions of the CLP secretary. Where more than one branch is involved, the CLP secretary shall be responsible for sending out the notice. Where more than one constituency is involved, the LCF secretary shall be directly responsible for convening such meetings on the instructions of the LCF executive.
 - f. Such meetings shall comprise only those fully paid-up individual members of the Party who are registered as electors or who reside in the electoral area concerned. Where this is impractical (for instance on the grounds of geography or travelling involved) the RD(GS) shall act on behalf of the NEC to approve arrangements for a special meeting of delegates appointed by branches within that electoral area.
 - g. Only those members who have been a member for at least 6 months are eligible to attend any meeting in this procedure. A freeze date for calculating this 6-month eligibility may be set by the LCF with the approval of the RD(GS). If no such freeze date is set the 6 months shall be counted from the date of the first meeting convened to discuss a shortlist for a particular electoral area.
 - h. A meeting in this procedure may be attended by not more than three representatives of the LCF executive who shall act in an advisory capacity without voting power. Any CLP concerned may send one member of their Executive Committee as an observer.
 - i. The LCF shall decide the number of members who shall comprise a necessary quorum for these meetings, which must be reviewed prior to each round of elections, subject to the agreement of the RD(GS).
 - j. A list of eligible members for such meetings shall be provided by the CLP secretaries involved from information supplied by the national membership system. Where appropriate a check against such list shall be made at the door and membership cards and/or other credentials shall be examined. At the commencement of the meeting the opportunity shall be given for the eligibility of any member present to be challenged. The LCF representatives present shall rule on the eligibility of any member over which the meeting is not satisfied. The notice of the meetings should indicate by when and where subscriptions should be brought up to date to ensure eligibility.
- iii. Shortlisting procedure
 - a. The list of nominees endorsed by the LCF ('the panel') shall be sent to CLPs for forwarding to the meetings of individual members covering the electoral areas where selections have been approved.
 - b. The shortlisting procedure shall incorporate any positive action procedures as agreed under section B above.
 - c. Those in attendance at the special shortlisting meeting convened as above shall decide which of the nominees shall be invited to the subsequent selection meeting.
 - d. Once a member has been nominated or expresses an interest in being nominated s/he must withdraw from the meeting and take no further part in it.
 - e. Where a vote is to be taken at a shortlisting meeting the following procedure must be adopted:
 1. Members present shall be invited to make nominations from those names on the approved panel of candidates. Nominations should be moved and seconded.
 2. Once all desired nominations have been made, those that have been moved and seconded shall be confirmed to the meeting and nominations closed.
 3. When nominations have closed the meeting shall decide whether to reselect each sitting councillor in turn or proceed to an open shortlisting and selection for each seat. It is not acceptable to shortlist only the number of candidates who are ultimately to be selected, unless either:

- a. the shortlist comprises only sitting councillors for the electoral area concerned who are seeking re-election to the relevant authority, or
 - b. only that number have been nominated at the commencement of the procedure.
4. In all other cases the meeting must agree to invite at least one more nominee than the number of candidates to be ultimately selected and normally a greater choice should be ensured for the subsequent selection meeting.
 5. Once the number to be shortlisted has been agreed, if required, the meeting should proceed to a vote using an eliminating ballot until only the number required to be shortlisted remain.
 6. Following the result of the ballot the meeting should agree the period of time to be offered to each nominee to address the selection meeting and answer questions and agree any other arrangements necessary. These agreed arrangements shall be communicated to the shortlisted nominees.
- f. If the required quorum is not present at a shortlisting meeting, then the meeting should proceed to draw up a shortlist which shall then be put to the subsequent selection meeting for approval or rejection before the business of that selection meeting may commence.
 - g. Any member arriving at the shortlisting meeting after consideration of the shortlist has commenced shall be ineligible to take part or to vote and this should be made clear in the notice convening the meeting.
- iv. Selection procedure
- a. The following procedure should be adopted at the special selection meeting:
1. Lots should be drawn for the order of appearance before the meeting of the shortlisted nominees. (This may be done in advance.)
 2. Each shortlisted nominee in attendance should be invited to address the meeting and answer questions for the specified period of time which shall be the same for all nominees.
 3. In the event of a nominee not being in attendance and having indicated a continued interest in the selection, her/his name shall remain in the ballot.
 4. Once all nominees in attendance have addressed the meeting and answered questions the meeting shall consider a procedural motion 'to proceed to ballot'. If members are dissatisfied with the shortlist as presented they shall vote against the motion and a secret ballot shall be held if one is requested by any member.
 5. If the 'proceed to ballot' motion is not carried then the meeting may suggest new dates for shortlisting and selection to be agreed by the CLP Executive Committee, or they may proceed to draw up a new shortlist. Any new selection meetings shall be convened in accordance with the procedure above.
 6. If it is agreed to ballot, then the method of balloting will depend on whether or not the ward is subject to positive action procedures as set out in section B above. Where at least one woman candidate must be selected from a multi-seat selection then a two-part ballot shall be held in accordance with section viii below. In all other cases the ballot will proceed as set out in section vii below.
 7. Where there is no positive action requirement, or you are selecting candidate(s) from an all women shortlist in line with positive action procedures, the ballot shall be held as follows:

- a. There shall be a secret paper eliminating ballot. Members may vote for as many as, or less than, the number of candidates required to be selected.
8. Where there is a requirement to select at least one woman candidate from a multi-seat selection, the vote to decide which nominees shall be selected as candidates shall be held as follows:
 - a. The ballot will be held in two parts. The first ballot will select a woman candidate (or two women candidates, if two seats are set aside for women) from amongst those women nominees on the shortlist. If there is only one woman nominee (or two where two seats are set aside for women) then that woman or women will be deemed selected. The second ballot will select the remaining candidate(s) from all shortlisted nominees with the exception of the woman candidate(s) selected in the part one ballot.
 - b. Voting in both ballots shall be a secret paper eliminating ballot. In the first ballot, members may cast one vote to select one woman candidate (or up to two votes where two seats have been set aside for women). In the second ballot members may vote for as many as, or less than, the number of candidates required to be selected.
 9. A successful candidate must have an overall majority of votes cast. Spoilt and blank papers shall be deducted from the total number of ballot papers returned before deciding whether a nominee has a clear majority.
 10. Should no nominee have an overall majority, the nominee at the bottom of the poll shall be eliminated from the next round of voting together with any others whose votes added to those of nominees lower in the poll do not equal the number of votes cast for the nominee immediately above.
 11. Where there is more than one candidate to be selected the eliminating ballot must continue removing the name(s) with the lowest votes until only the number required to be selected remain.
 12. Where there is a tie at the bottom of any ballot and the two (or more) votes added together are equal to or more than the next vote above, a separate ballot shall be held to break the tie and decide which nominee shall be eliminated from the following round.
 13. If there is a tie on the final round of any ballot, the chair is not allowed a casting vote so a further ballot must be held to determine the result. Before taking this further ballot the nominees tying may be recalled separately for a further period of questions. If there is still a tie then a fresh selection meeting shall be convened
 14. If after a further meeting no decision is reached there shall be a joint meeting convened on the same basis as in xvi below.
 15. No shortlisted nominee shall take part or vote as a member of the branch in the selection meeting unless they have formally withdrawn from the selection.
 16. If the required quorum is not present at a selection meeting then the selection of the candidate(s) shall be deferred to a subsequent joint meeting of those individual members eligible to attend the first meeting plus members of the Executive Committee of the CLP concerned who are registered as electors within the area of operation of the LCF and who have the 6-month membership qualification. Executive members who have an interest in the outcome of the selection shall not participate in this joint meeting. Such a meeting shall proceed however many members are present. However, the Executive Committee members present at the deferred meeting shall have the right to vote in any ballot only if again insufficient members from the electoral area concerned attend to form a quorum.

17. Any member arriving at the selection meeting after the first nominee has started to address it shall be ineligible to take part or to vote and this should be made clear in the notice convening the meeting.

18. In the case of any dispute arising in connection with a selection it shall be referred to the LCF whose decision shall be final.

v. Exceptional selections

- a. In the event of a local government by-election occurring within a constituency, the Executive Committee of the CLP concerned shall consult with the executive of the appropriate LCF and the officers of any branches concerned to ensure that the vacancy is contested by the Party. Wherever possible a selection should be made in accordance with the procedures detailed above, but where necessary the CLP Executive Committee, in consultation with the executive of the LCF, shall take whatever action is required to meet the situation and endorsed by the RD(GS) on behalf of the NEC.
- b. Where any situation requires that a candidate be imposed for a local government election, the appropriate LCF may only do so with the approval of the appropriate RD(GS) of the Party on behalf of the NEC. In exceptional circumstances the NEC shall require a panel of the Regional Board to make a decision which shall be final and binding on all parties.

J. Alternative Procedures

- a. An LCF may apply to the NEC to pilot new or innovative procedures. Any such procedure must retain procedures for ensuring the Party's objectives under positive action are met.

Appendix 5

NEC Advice Note – Interviewing sitting councillors or recent candidates

Grounds for interviewing a sitting councillor who has re-applied for inclusion on the panel of local government candidates or recent candidate who had not been elected.

1. Sitting councillors

- A. To be reviewed by a written form from the chief whip regarding discipline and attendance, and by a written report from the branch secretary covering the ward they represent. An update form must be completed by all sitting councillors wishing to be placed on the new panel of candidates. The LCF Officers, or a panel duly authorised by the LCF, may request an interview if the reports raise concerns about discipline, attendance, campaigning record or competence. Should they feel the circumstance dictate, the RD(GS) can instruct the LCF that an interview is undertaken and must give such reasons in writing. Should an interview not be requested, the sitting councillor will be recommended for inclusion on the panel without interview. Should an interview be required, this will be undertaken by an assessment team.
- B. As required by the NEC procedural guidelines an LCF will need to set up a panel to review the reports on sitting councillors and the update form submitted by sitting councillors. This can be the LCF Officers or a duly authorised panel put in place for this purpose, hereafter referred to as “the Panel”.
- C. Circumstances under which a sitting councillor should be called in for an interview The Panel are required to review the report from the chief whip and branch secretary, and an update report by sitting councillors. It would be appropriate to interview sitting councillors for any of the following reasons:
 - i. Poor disciplinary report from chief whip, including matters before the relevant standards committee
 - ii. Poor attendance report from chief whip
 - iii. Poor report from branch secretary with regard to their role in Party activities or the carrying out of their role as a councillor, i.e. attendance at council meetings and other meetings of which they are a member, the holding of advice surgeries, attendance at consultative meetings in the ward, and regular communications with local residents.

- iv. Concerns on any issue/s in a councillors update report
 - v. A combination of i) to iv) above
- D. Should the Panel only receive a poor report from the branch secretary, they would need to take into consideration any known tensions between the branch secretary and the councillor, and it would be helpful to know whether or not the concerns stated were generally held by branch members.
 - E. Ultimately, the Panel will have to make a considered decision as to whether a councillor should be called for interview, and a consistent approach needs to be taken. The Panel should err on the side of interviewing provided poor report/s are received, and it needs to be recognised that the Panel are basing their decision to interview on reports received by them and not of their own initiative. Advice on whether or not to interview a sitting councillor can be obtained from the Regional Director (or General Secretary in Scotland and Wales, and the RD(GS) does have the authority to instruct the LCF to carry out an interview having given such reasons.
 - F. It is not unreasonable that a sitting Labour councillor, who is perceived to be carrying out their duties at a poor level, should be called for an interview. Such a decision as taken by the Panel, should then be forwarded to the LCF Assessment Team to carry out the interview. The members who made up the Panel must not form part of the Assessment Team interviewing sitting councillors.
- ### 2. Recent candidate who had not been elected
- A. To be reviewed by a written report confirming there has been no change in circumstances and updating the applicant’s campaign and Party record. It will require an endorsement of the application by the branch in which they reside and the CLP campaign coordinator or similar officer. The LCF Officers, or a panel duly authorised by the LCF, may request an interview if the report raises concerns about their campaigning record or competence.

- B. Should they feel the circumstance dictate, the RD(GS) can instruct the LCF that an interview is undertaken and must give such reasons in writing. Should an interview not be requested, the applicant will be recommended for inclusion on the panel without interview. Should an interview be required, this will be undertaken by an assessment team. As required by the NEC procedural guidelines an LCF will need to set up a panel to review the reports on a recent candidate who had not been elected. This can be the LCF Officers or a duly authorized panel put in place for this purpose, hereafter referred to as “the Panel”.
- C. Circumstances under which a recent candidate who had not been elected should be called for an interview
- D. The Panel are required to review the reports from the branch in which they reside and the CLP campaign coordinator or similar officer. It would be appropriate to interview sitting councillors for any of the following reasons:
- i. Poor report from the branch in which they reside, notifying changed circumstances
 - ii. Poor report from CLP campaign officer or similar officer, notifying changed circumstances
 - iii. A combination of i) & ii) above
- E. The Panel would need to take into consideration any known tensions between the parties should a poor report be received. Ultimately, the Panel will have to make a considered decision as to whether a recent candidate who had not been elected should be called for interview, and a consistent approach needs to be taken. The Panel should err on the side of interviewing provided poor report/s are received, and it needs to be recognised that the Panel are basing their decision to interview on reports received by them and not of their own initiative.
- F. Advice on whether or not to interview a recent candidate who had not been elected can be obtained from the RD(GS), and the RD(GS) does have the authority to instruct the LCF to carry out an interview having given such reasons. It is not unreasonable that a member who is perceived to have a poor campaigning record should be called for an interview. Such a decision as taken by the Panel, should then be forwarded to the LCF Assessment Team to carry out the interview. The members who made up the Panel must not form part of the Assessment Team interviewing recent candidates who had not been elected.

Appendix 6

Procedural guidelines in disciplinary cases brought before the NCC

1. Further information on these guidelines may be obtained from the secretary of the NCC at The Labour Party Governance and Legal Unit
2. Any person appearing before a panel of the NCC and in particular any Party member acting as a 'presenter' of, or a 'respondent' to, a case before the panel should make themselves familiar with these procedural guidelines. Though these procedural guidelines do not form part of the Party's rules, they have the full approval of the NCC and give detail on the NCC approach to dealing with individual cases.
3. In fairness to all sides, the NCC expects the parties involved and its panels to adhere to the guidelines wherever practicable. Inevitably a degree of flexibility is required to deal with unforeseen circumstances or unusual cases. Such variances, however, should be kept to a minimum.
4. The NCC or a panel of the NCC have the authority in what they deem to be appropriate circumstances, to dispose of a case without a hearing and to rely solely on the written representations. Such circumstances may be where the respondent has failed to reply to the NCC or indicated they will not be attending the scheduled hearing, or where the particulars of the case lead the panel to deem that a hearing would not be in the best interest of either side.
5. Timetable for dealing with cases
 - A. Stage 1 – Receipt of case
 - i. On receipt of a case from the NEC or a CLP, the NCC secretary shall confirm certain details about the case from the designated 'presenter'.
 - ii. If there is urgency, the Chair of the NCC shall appoint a panel (three members of the NCC) to deal with the case; otherwise the receipt of the case shall be reported to the next meeting of the NCC (which may be held by telephone conference) where the membership of the panel shall be agreed.
 - B. Stage 2 – Run-up to hearing
 - i. Letters shall normally be sent to each individual (respondent) charged, and panel members, giving about six weeks' notice of the hearing. These should enclose the charge or charges together with particulars of each and a summary of the facts supporting each charge, together with a separate bundle of the documents to be relied upon, and names of witnesses to support each charge.
 - ii. The respondent shall be written to at the last notified address and required to advise the secretary of the NCC two weeks after date of posting of the letter enclosing the charge whether she/ he intends to contest the charge or not. Should that person fail to respond, within two weeks, thereafter a letter shall be sent advising that failure to respond without reasonable cause shall be deemed an admission entitling the NCC to proceed with the case and to impose any appropriate sanction. Where the respondent intends to contest the charge a written answer to the charge must be sent to the secretary of the NCC within four weeks of the date of posting of the letter enclosing the charge. Said written answer must identify what, if any, parts of the charge are admitted, what parts of the charge are contested and the basis on which they are contested.
 - iii. Witnesses
 - a. The respondent shall apply to the panel chair in writing regarding any witnesses she/ he wishes to give oral evidence at least two weeks prior to the proposed hearing date.
 - b. The NCC or any panel thereof will consider the requests for witnesses to give oral evidence having considered that fairness requires such application to be acceded to whether in whole or part, having regard to the following:
 - iii. A chair of the panel shall also be appointed at this stage who shall be responsible for ensuring that the procedural matters in advance of any hearing are dealt with in accordance with the guidelines.
 - iv. In the event the panel considers the case submitted to it should proceed to a full hearing a date for a hearing shall be fixed at this stage. The panel may decide to vary or alter said date.

1. the reason given in support of the application
 2. the issue or issues or otherwise to which the witness or witnesses are said to have relevant evidence to give
 3. the materials provided by the respondent making the application
 4. whether the respondent has availed herself/ himself of the opportunity to submit to the NCC or any panel thereof, in support of her/ his application, a witness statement containing the evidence of the witness whom the respondent is now applying to the NCC or any panel thereof to hear orally
 5. the content of any such witness statement
 6. any other considerations that appear to the NCC or panel thereof to be relevant to determining whether fairness to the respondent requires that any witness the subject of such an application be heard by the NCC or panel thereof orally.
- c. The criteria stated above for witnesses to be heard, will equally relate to the presenter.
 - d. The NCC is concerned with the content of the charges presented and panels are not therefore generally concerned to hear 'character' witnesses on either side. As a general rule, a panel of the NCC will not take oral evidence from more than six witnesses from the presenter/ respondent, unless additional witnesses are material to specific elements of the charges and their evidence is not able to be confirmed by other witnesses.
 - e. The NCC has no means of compulsion to ensure witnesses attend a hearing, and it is a matter for the presenter/ respondent to arrange for their witnesses to attend.
 - f. Acceptance of witnesses for the presenter / respondent should be confirmed by the panel chair one week prior to the hearing, and will be duly notified to both sides. The presenter may call additional witnesses and lodge additional witness statements in the rebuttal of the respondent's reply to charges.
- iv. Legal representation
 - a. An application by the respondent for legal representation at the hearing shall be made in writing no later than four weeks prior to the hearing. The NCC or panel thereof shall determine whether such an application is appropriate, and the respondent shall be notified of the decision not later than three weeks prior to the hearing.
 - b. Where the respondent has been granted legal representation, the presenter will be offered the same facility.
 - c. Where legal representation is permitted a pre-hearing meeting of the panel, along with the legal representative(s) and presenter, may be convened to consider procedural matters relating to the conduct of the hearing. This must be requested at least two weeks prior to the hearing, unless the NCC panel in their discretion decide otherwise.
 - v. The presenter/ respondent shall be entitled to an accompanying friend at the hearing, who must be a member of the Party, and may not address the hearing or be a witness for either side in the course of the proceedings. The identity of the accompanying friend shall be notified to the secretary of the panel not later than one week prior to the hearing. Where legal representation is agreed an accompanying friend will not also be permitted.
 - vi. The final arrangements shall as far as reasonably practical be confirmed at least four days prior to the hearing.
 - vii. Written evidence
 - a. A panel of the NCC does not seek out documentation or evidence prior to the hearing on its own initiative. It is not the responsibility of the panel to insist that specific documentation be released by the presenter for the use of the respondent, though any such request will be forwarded to the presenter.
 - b. The presenter's written case summary and documents shall be forwarded to the NCC in a form that is easily copied. Any bundle of documents in excess of 30 sheets shall be numbered consecutively and copied six times for each case and these forwarded to the NCC Secretary.

- c. Written submissions and documents from the respondent shall be forwarded to the NCC in a form that is easily copied. Any bundle of documents in excess of 30 sheets shall be numbered consecutively and copied six times and these forwarded to the NCC Secretary.

viii. All communications and correspondence must go through the secretary of the NCC, and both sides must not contact each other or the other side's witnesses direct.

C. Stage 3 – The full hearing

- i. Hearings before panels of the NCC are intended to be non-adversarial, and the chair will attempt to maintain an informal atmosphere. The panel itself will ask questions of witnesses where it considers it is necessary to establish or clarify the facts.
- ii. Where a case involves more than one respondent the panel chair shall establish before the commencement of any hearing whether the cases are to be heard together or separately. The respondents and presenter will be consulted, though the final decision shall be at the discretion of the NCC or panel thereof.
- iii. The presenter and respondent, along with any accompanying friend or legal representative(s), shall remain in the room throughout the hearing except where the panel adjourns to consider procedural or other matters.
- iv. Witnesses shall be brought into the room one by one during the course of the presenter's and respondent's cases. No one else shall be permitted to attend the hearing without the consent of the NCC or Panel Chair which shall proceed as follows:
 - a. The hearing procedure is:
 - 1. Chair introduces panel and outlines procedure, panel deals with any procedural points or questions. Where the presenter / respondent is permitted a legal representative, the presenter's / respondent's case will be conducted by the legal representative alone. However, in such circumstances the other side and the panel will be given the opportunity to directly question the presenter / respondent.

- 2. Presenter makes statement of the case and calls witnesses in turn. As each witness is introduced s/he may be asked questions by:
 - the presenter
 - the respondent/ representative members of the panel.
- 3. At the conclusion of the statement of case, the respondent/ representative may put questions to the presenter on the overall case as presented. The members of the panel may put any questions they have to the presenter on the overall case as presented. Where a representative has put the case for the presenter, the respondent / representative and the panel will be given the opportunity to ask questions directly of the presenter.
- 4. At this stage the hearing will adjourn. Having heard the presenter's evidence the panel will have to decide whether there is sufficient evidence for the full case to be heard, or if there is no case for the respondent to answer. If it decides there is no case to answer the panel shall so rule and dismiss the case, otherwise the case will proceed as follows:
- 5. Respondent or the representative presents her/ his case and calls witnesses in turn. As each witness is introduced they may be asked questions by:
 - the respondent/ representative
 - the presenter
 - members of the panel.
- 6. At the conclusion of the respondent's case, the presenter may put questions to the respondent/ representative on the overall case as presented. The members of the panel may put any questions they have to the respondent/ representative on the overall case as presented. Where a representative has put the case for the respondent, the presenter / representative and the panel will be given the opportunity to ask questions directly of the respondent.

7. The presenter may then make a closing statement dealing with the charges and evidence. No new evidence or documents may then be introduced by the presenter or on their behalf.
8. The respondent may then make a closing statement dealing with the charges and evidence. No new evidence or documents may then be introduced by the respondent or on their behalf.
9. The presenter may respond on matters of a procedural nature raised in the respondent's closing statement.
10. If the charge is one of membership of an organisation proscribed by the rules of the Party, the respondent shall be asked by the panel chair whether s/he is prepared to give an undertaking as to future involvement in the form required by the NEC.
11. The panel adjourns to consider whether in its opinion the charges are proved or not proved.
12. The panel shall identify which charge(s) or part thereof in its opinion is held proved. This is determined, if need be, by a simple majority.
13. If the panel considers that none of the charges is proved then the case shall be dismissed, and shall not form part of any future proceedings before the NCC against that individual.
14. If a panel finds any of the charges or parts thereof proved then the hearing resumes to inform the respondent and to provide an opportunity for a statement to be made to the panel with regard to any mitigating circumstances which the respondent wishes to bring to the panel's attention. Before addressing the panel the respondent should be informed by the chair that one of the disciplinary measures to be considered may be that of expulsion from the Party. At the conclusion of the address in mitigation, members of the panel may ask questions of the respondent on that issue.

15. The panel then adjourn to consider any plea in mitigation and any disciplinary measure it may decide to impose. Such decision shall be final.
16. No member of the panel may vote on the charge against the respondent on any disciplinary action to be taken unless s/he has been present for the whole of the hearing.
17. Where a panel has found a charge under Chapter 2 Clause 1.4.A, 1.4.B or 1.4.C (the conditions of membership) proved, expulsion is required by the terms of those rules.
18. Where a panel has found a charge of being a member of a proscribed organisation under Chapter 2 1.3.C of the conditions of membership proved, expulsion is required by the terms of the rule unless the panel is satisfied that an unqualified undertaking in the form required by the NEC has been given, in which case a disciplinary measure short of expulsion may be imposed.
19. The decision will be confirmed in writing following the closing of the hearing.

6. Other matters

- A. Disposal of case other than by hearing:
 - i. A panel may decide to dismiss a case at any stage up to A.iii.D.i.d above on the grounds that no case to answer has been established. Where a case is contested by the respondent a hearing as above will usually proceed unless agreement is reached on an alternative method of determining the case (e.g. on the basis of written submissions only).
- B. Decisions of other authorities
 - i. The NCC has taken the view that it is important that the Party adopt a consistent approach towards the findings of the courts statutory inquiries, the District Auditor, Relevant standards committees and other such judicial or quasi-judicial authorities.

- ii. Presenters on behalf of the NEC and CLPs cannot be expected to provide first hand evidence for the findings of such bodies. The NCC shall treat such findings as grounds for disciplinary action unless evidence is provided of a successful challenge through the appropriate channels. The findings of such authorities shall normally be conclusive proof of the commission of such a crime, act or default.

C. Party membership of individuals charged

- i. An individual charged must have been a member of the Party at the time of the alleged breach of rule (and of the constituency concerned where the case is brought by a CLP). A CLP is entitled to pursue a case against a former member who has subsequently transferred membership to another CLP.
- ii. Where an individual ceases to be a Party member, although the NCC is entitled to deal with any charges brought, it however has determined that it shall not hear cases in respect of individuals who cease to be Party members but shall treat the case as 'suspended'. In such cases the General Secretary of the Party shall be informed that an NCC case was outstanding at the time that membership lapsed or otherwise ceased. It will therefore be for the NEC to consider any outstanding matter in relation to a suspended NCC case should the individual concerned re-apply for Party membership. The evidence from a suspended case may, however, be used in future for any purpose.

D. Procedural matters at NEC or CLP level

- i. The rules under which the NCC operates make it clear that the NCC and its panels are concerned only with the charge(s). The procedures adopted on behalf of the Party or a CLP in advance of a referral to the NCC are not matters for the NCC dealing with a particular case. The NCC is entitled to (and will) act on the basis that the charges are properly brought before them and cannot become embroiled in dealing with complaints about the administration of any investigation leading to the charges. Any such complaint will therefore not be entertained by the NCC or panel thereof unless it is material or relevant to the consideration of the evidence to be used by the presenter in support of the charges.

- ii. Complaints about the conduct of an investigation at CLP level should be addressed to the appropriate RD(GS), or the Party's General Secretary in the case of national investigations, and not to the NCC.

Appendix 7

Procedural guidelines for the general organisation of Constituency Labour Parties

Clause I. General

1. Constituency Labour Parties (CLPs) may adopt methods of organisation most suited to their local circumstances, subject to the approval of the NEC.
2. CLPs are also encouraged to agree methods of organisation which allow cooperation with other CLPs, affiliated organisations and the wider community.
3. In any model of organisation, there shall be such officers to ensure compliance with current legal obligations, and an Executive Committee elected to ensure the day to day running of the CLP.

Clause II. Delegate Organisation

1. The General Meeting of this CLP shall consist of delegates elected by:
 - A. affiliated organisations, in accordance with Clause III of these rules. Each affiliated organisation may have a maximum of five delegates to this CLP, except that the RD(GS) with the approval of the NEC may vary this limit in agreement with the affiliated organisation where it has more than 1,000 members resident in the constituency.
 - B. branches established in accordance with Chapter 8 of these rules together with the secretaries who shall be ex-officio members with voting power. Branch parties with three or more members under the age of 26 may elect from among them an additional youth delegate.
 - C. women's forum where established.
 - D. workplace branches where established.
 - E. BAME forum where established.

- F. Other such forums properly constituted by this CLP.

Clause III. Basis of representation

1. The basis of representation of the General Meeting shall be as follows: {here insert the basis of representation as approved by the NEC} provided that:
2. only a member in respect of whom an affiliation fee or a membership fee for the full year or period of membership as the case may be has been paid to this CLP for the previous year or part thereof to 31 December may be counted in calculating the number of delegates
3. a Party unit with fewer than ten members shall be represented by not more than one delegate whether the secretary or any other member
4. members in arrears shall not be counted when establishing the number of delegates from Party branches to the General Committee/All Member Meeting
5. an organisation during the year in which it is affiliated or a Party unit during the year in which it is established shall be entitled to appoint delegates to attend and participate in meetings of the General Meeting subsequent to the annual meeting, the number of delegates being calculated on the basis of the affiliation fee or membership fees paid in the said year.

Clause IV. Conditions for appointment of delegates to this CLP

1. Every delegate must be an individual member of the Party in this CLP as described in the membership rules.
2. Delegates from branches must reside within the branch appointing them. Delegates from affiliated organisations must be bona fide members or paid permanent officials of the organisation appointing them.
3. No person shall act as a delegate for more than one organisation/ Party unit.
4. Delegates must either reside or be registered as electors in the constituency.

5. Members of Parliament may be appointed as delegates to the General Committee/All Member Meeting in the constituency they represent, provided they fulfil the criteria above. They may not be elected to or serve on the Executive Committee, or hold any office within such CLP. MPs shall have the right to receive notice of, and to attend Executive and General Committee/All Member Meeting meetings of, the CLP they represent and report on their work.
6. The term of office of a delegate shall commence with the opening of the annual meeting of this CLP following their appointment or the date of their appointment if after the annual meeting. Unless terminated by their resignation, death or for any other reason by the affiliated organisation or Party unit which appointed them, the term of office of a delegate shall extend to the conclusion of the next following annual meeting of this CLP but they shall not be entitled to attend except as members of the Executive Committee of this CLP to tender reports to that meeting but not to vote unless reappointed as delegates for the appropriate year. All delegates who qualify under these conditions may be re-appointed. It shall be the duty of the secretary of this CLP to invite affiliated organisations and Party units to elect their delegates prior to and in time to be called to the annual meeting and to assist this the Executive Committee may set a reasonable deadline for the appointment of delegates for that meeting.

Clause V.

Non Delegate Organisation

1. The General Meeting of this CLP shall consist of all eligible members and delegates from affiliated organisations.

Clause VI.

Other Methods of Organisation

1. The general procedures for other methods of organisation will be shown here as they are approved by the NEC.

Appendix 8

NEC statement - A minimum guarantee of support to CLPs

Clause I. Introduction

1. Currently CLPs receive a share of membership income that is directly related to the number and type of members they have which mean that the larger constituencies get significantly more than the smaller constituencies.

Clause II. The minimum guarantee will:

1. Roll into the new scheme the costs of the European Election Levy, the Election Insurance payment, Contact Creator and the cost of one delegate pass for annual conference for every CLP in the country – the CLP 'package', a Minimum Guarantee for CLPs.
2. Write off historic debt owed to the party from CLPs for the non-payment of Election Insurance or the Euro levy and debt from past General Elections.
3. Create a fairer distribution of cash payments to CLPs that ensures that every CLP receives a cash payment in addition to the package outlined above.
4. Recognise that there should be some discrepancy in cash payments to account for the differing administration costs associated with being a larger CLP.
5. Have transitional arrangements in place to temper the effects of the changes over two rather than one year with arrangements to effectively communicate with CLPs about how the changes will affect them.
6. Create two new NEC administered funds:
 - A. The NEC Diversity and Democracy Fund and
 - B. the NEC Local Campaigns and Improvement Fund.

Clause III. The detail of the proposal

1. Every CLP will receive a cash payment based on the number of members in that CLP

- A. CLPs would continue to receive a cash payment based on the number of paid up members in that CLP. The payment will be set at £1.50 per paid up member. For example if a CLP has 300 members it will receive £450 annual cash payment which shall be paid in instalments every two months.
2. A minimum guarantee for every CLP & no national deductions
 - A. Alongside a cash payment every CLP will receive free access to Contact Creator and one free pass to Annual Conference. In addition, the party will no longer deduct the Euro levy and elections insurance (currently £665 p.a.) from CLP membership subscriptions, but account centrally for these items out of membership subscription payments.
 3. Transitional arrangements will be in place for year 1 (2012)
 - A. In order to help CLPs with financial planning, transitional arrangements will be in place for the first year of operation of the new system. For those CLPs getting less under the new scheme their loss would be mitigated in year 1 by paying back half their losses in addition to their new cash payment. These transitional costs are to be met from the sums allocated to the NEC administered funds in the first year.
 4. The Creation of NEC administered Diversity & Democracy Fund and Local Campaigns and Improvement Fund
 - A. The new proposal will leave funds available to allow for the creation of two NEC administered funds an NEC Diversity & Democracy Fund and a Local Campaigns and Improvement Fund. The amounts placed into the NEC funds will be calculated by using as a base the total amount that would have been paid to CLPs under the current formula minus:
 - i. the cost of providing the minimum guarantee to CLPs;
 - ii. cost of not having any national deductions; and
 - iii. the cash payments made to CLPs.
 - B. The new NEC funds will be overseen by a panel of NEC members chosen directly from the NEC.
 - C. CLPs would be invited to bid for funding from the committees which would meet at least twice a year to consider applications.

- D. The Scottish and Welsh Executives and General Secretaries, and the Regional Directors and Regional Boards would be asked for input and views on each bid received.

Clause IV.

The aim of each fund is as follows:

1. NEC Diversity and Democracy Fund.
 - A. Aimed at helping the poorest CLPs with the cost of sending delegates to Annual, Scottish and Welsh Conferences, and for encouraging diversity at a local level.
2. NEC Local Campaigns and Improvement Fund
 - A. This fund would specifically support local campaigning in the field – so activity is rewarded and incentivised, and match funding of projects or organisers would be considered.
3. Given the anticipated demand the majority of the money should be placed in the NEC Local Campaigns and Improvement Fund. However, this allocation can be amended year on year – for example in General Election year – by the NEC. Guidelines will be produced for CLPs on both the operation of these funds and how to bid from these funds.

Appendix 9 NEC Codes of Conduct

All codes of conduct and NEC statements form part of the agreed relationship between individual Labour Party members, and set the minimum code of conduct expected by the Party of all its members. The NEC may supplement or amend these codes of conduct at any time. Further codes of conduct exist relating to internal elections, selections and other matters. These may be found in the rule book or on the Labour Party website at www.labour.org.uk

1. Code of Conduct: Sexual Harassment and Gender Discrimination.

The Labour Party is the party of equality and has fought to ensure that society provides equal opportunities for all and will continue to do so. Labour strongly believes that no one should feel disadvantaged, discriminated against or harassed due to their gender either inside the party or in the wider society.

The Labour Party understands that sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination that takes place when someone is subjected to unwelcome and unwanted sexual behaviour or other conduct related to their gender. This can range from inappropriate comments to assault, can be verbal, non-verbal or physical and can take place both in person or online.

The Labour Party will not tolerate any form of discrimination or harassment. Labour is committed to ensuring the party is a welcoming environment for all who share our aims and values to engage in political activity and debate without feeling disadvantaged or unsafe. Any behaviour that is perceived to discriminate against or harass another due to their gender has no place within the Labour Party.

2. Code of Conduct: Antisemitism and other forms of racism

The Labour Party is an anti-racist party, committed to combating and campaigning against all forms of racism, including antisemitism and Islamophobia.

Labour will not tolerate racism in any form inside or outside the party.

The Labour Party will ensure that the party is a welcoming home to members of all communities, with no place for any prejudice or discrimination based on race, ethnicity or religion.

The Labour Party welcomes all who share our aims and values, and encourages political debate and campaigns around the vital issues, policies and injustices of our time.

Any behaviour or use of language which targets or intimidates members of ethnic or religious communities, or incites racism, including antisemitism and Islamophobia, or undermines Labour's ability to campaign against any form of racism, is unacceptable conduct within the Labour Party.

3. Code of Conduct: Social Media Policy

National Executive Committee Statement

A starting point for all our actions as members of a party and a movement is to treat all people with dignity and respect. This applies to all our dealings with people, offline and online.

Everyone should feel able to take part in discussion about our party, country and world. We want to maximise this debate, including critical discussion, as long as it does not result in the exclusion of others.

Abusing someone online is just as serious as doing so face to face. We stand against all forms of abuse and will take action against those who commit it.

Harassment, intimidation, hateful language and bullying are never acceptable, nor is any form of discrimination on the basis of gender, race, religion, age, sexual orientation, gender identity or disability.

Any member found in breach of the above policies will be dealt with according to the rules and procedures of the Labour Party.

We wish to build a diverse movement that reflects the whole of society, so should always consider how our actions and words may limit the confidence or otherwise exclude either those less knowledgeable than ourselves or those already under-represented in politics.

Those with privilege, whether due to their volume of experience, party position or status in society should have regard to how their actions may be felt by those in different circumstances to themselves.

It is perfectly possible to have vehement disagreements without descending into personal abuse, shaming people or exhibiting bullying behaviour. Forcefully made points and criticisms of the political views of others are totally legitimate, personal attacks are not.

Debates amongst party members should be comradely, acknowledging that whatever our diverse views, we are one party with shared goals. Derogatory descriptions of the positions of others should be avoided.

Anonymous accounts or otherwise hiding one's identity for the purpose of abusing others is never permissible.

The use of sexualised language or imagery, and unwelcome sexual attention or advances are not acceptable, nor is the publishing of others' private information without their explicit permission.

We should not give voice to those who persistently engage in abuse and should avoid sharing their content, even when the item in question is unproblematic. Those who consistently abuse other or spread hate should be shunned and not engaged with in a way that ignores this behaviour.

We all have a responsibility to challenge abuse and to stand in solidarity with victims of it. We should attempt to educate and discourage abusers rather than responding in kind.

We encourage the reporting of abusive behaviour to the Labour Party, administrators of the relevant website or social media platform, and where appropriate, to the police.

This is a collective responsibility and should not be limited to those who have been subjected to abuse.

Trolling, or otherwise disrupting the ability of others to debate is not acceptable, nor is consistently mentioning or making contact with others when this is unwelcome.

Principles for the Labour Party's use of Social Media

1. We are direct, confident and proud in what we have to say - we speak boldly and with clear intention.
2. We are clear about our position and our policies, and will give our members and supporters the language and tools to disseminate these.
3. Collectivism is at the heart of what we do. Our members and supporters are crucial to all our achievements and their contributions, from door-knocking to online activism, are valued and acknowledged.
4. We seek to break down the wall that creates 'us' and 'them'. When we say 'we' that means the whole movement and those who share our values, not an exclusive group.
5. We want debate and discussion to flourish on our channels and will encourage feedback wherever appropriate.
6. We make legitimate criticisms based on policy and political actions, never making personal attacks.
7. We use accessible language and avoid jargon that could exclude or alienate.
8. We put the stories and experiences of the public first. We prioritise the issues that affect people in their everyday lives, rather than providing news for insiders.
9. We are inventive and innovative with our digital strategy and that means experimentation. We need people to be open-minded to change and encourage us to offer the best digital experience possible - even when that means trial and error.
10. We know that not everyone will agree with us. Constructive criticism is welcome, but we want to create a welcoming space for our supporters, so if comments become abusive we will report them.

4. Code of Conduct: Member's Pledge

I pledge to act within the spirit and rules of the Labour Party in my conduct both on and offline, with members and non-members and I stand against all forms of abuse.

I understand that if found to be in breach of the Labour Party policy on online and offline abuse, I will be subject to the rules and procedures of the Labour Party.
