

Delegates' Report

From the Conference
Arrangements Committee

Liverpool, Sunday 22 September to Wednesday 25 September 2024

A MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR OF THE CONFERENCE ARRANGEMENTS COMMITTEE

On behalf of the Conference Arrangements Committee (CAC), I congratulate you on becoming a delegate to Labour Party Conference 2024 and welcome you to the ECL – the Exhibition Centre Liverpool. This year will see the first Conference since the landslide election of a Labour Government and my first Conference fulfilling the role as Chair of the CAC. I'd like to pay tribute to my predecessor, Harry Donaldson who served as Chair for many years.

Annual Conference 2024 formally opens on Sunday morning. Our Fringe programme sees hundreds of organisations hosting a range of events including seminars, debates, workshops and receptions in the Exhibition Centre Liverpool and at other venues across the city.

This Delegates' Report outlines the business to be discussed and voted on at Conference together with a provisional timetable and details of the ballots taking place at Conference.

The CAC will issue a daily report at Conference with a detailed agenda of the day's debates, ballot arrangements and results, the text of composite motions and other information to supplement the reports of the National Executive Committee. There are copies of the CAC reports available at the Conference Hall. Members may also view and download all reports from the Labour Party website: <https://labour.org.uk/resources/annual-conference-2024-reports/>

The CAC is always keen to hear your views about Conference and the information provided to delegates so please take time to fill in the Delegates' Survey at: www.labevents.org/ac2024delegatesurvey

Whether you are a first-time delegate or have attended before, I hope that you enjoy Conference 2024 and look forward to meeting you around the Exhibition Centre Liverpool.

Lynne Morris

VOTING AT CONFERENCE

Votes at Conference are taken as a show of hands unless a card vote is requested by a delegate or by the decision of the Chair.

A card vote is intended to resolve a position where a show of hands is not decisive, to establish the exact breakdown of votes when the majority is of procedural significance (e.g. two-thirds required) or on a challenge to the Chair. Voting takes place at the end of the session by a show of hands. Where a show of hands is unclear a card vote can be taken having been either requested by delegates or by the decision of the Chair. The decision of the Chair is final. For further information on this please see the Annual Conference Standing Orders.

Constitutional amendments (rule changes) are always decided by a card vote.

If a card vote is called the vote is taken immediately so delegates must carry their card vote booklet with them while Conference is in session.

Tellers will pass ballot boxes along each row. Delegates should cast their vote using their card vote booklets by selecting either FOR or AGAINST card for each vote.

Each card vote in the booklet is numbered. The Chair will announce the number of the card vote being taken.

CARD VOTE BOOKLETS

➤ CLP delegates should attend their region/nation's briefing on Sunday before Conference starts where their card vote booklet will be issued to them along with their ballot papers. After the briefings, card vote booklets and ballot papers can be collected from the Ballot Area for the remainder of Conference.

➤ Socialist Society delegates may collect their card vote booklets from the Ballot Area.

➤ Trade Unions: political officers have been asked to call Katy Leighton on 07885 472 100 to arrange collection of their delegates card votes at conference. Otherwise, each trade union can collect their delegations card votes from the Ballot Area.

Please speak to the staff in the Ballot Area if you lose your card vote booklet or if you have any queries about ballots or voting.

DELEGATES' REGIONAL BRIEFINGS

All delegates are invited to attend a briefing from their regional or national office on the first morning of Conference. The briefing provides the opportunity for delegates to pick up their card vote booklets and ballot papers and ask any questions about conference. ## DEBATES, SPEAKERS AND VOTES

The annual report of the National Executive Committee (NEC), constitutional amendments (rule changes), composite motions drawn up from the contemporary motions agreed through the Priorities Ballot and relevant emergency motions will be debated and voted on by Conference.

Debates will be structured around Labour's missions for government and will work as follows:

- any composite motion(s) will be moved and seconded by the delegates agreed at the compositing meeting
- if there is a related emergency motion then it will be moved and seconded
- there will then be a debate with delegates invited to speak
- at the end of the session a vote will be taken on, the composite motions and any emergency motions. Voting takes place at the end of the session by a show of hands unless a card vote is requested by a delegate or by the decision of the Chair. Rule changes are always decided by a card vote.

- If a card vote is called, the vote is taken immediately. Tellers will pass ballot boxes around the Hall. The Chair will announce the number of the card vote.
- During the debate and at the end of each Conference session, the Chair will indicate whether or not the NEC is recommending that the relevant document or motion be accepted by Conference.

Time Limits for Speakers

The time limits for speakers can be found in the Annual Conference Standing Orders, which should be consulted in case changes are made subsequent to the publication of this report.

Movers and seconders of reports, motions and rule changes will be allowed three minutes, with other speakers from the floor allowed two minutes. Motions, reports and rule changes can be formally seconded from the floor without a speech. The Conference Arrangements Committee have agreed that all other platform speakers will be allowed 5 minutes speaking time.

Qualifications for moving motions

Only fully accredited delegates appointed in accordance with the party rules are entitled to move motions on behalf of their organisations.

Referencing Back

The NEC have agreed that there will be no NPF Annual Report to Conference this year, therefore there will be no opportunity for delegates to submit references back.

MOTIONS

The deadline for receipt of motions is 5pm, Thursday 12 September 2024.

The Conference Arrangements Committee (CAC) will consider all contemporary motions submitted by CLPs and affiliated organisations against its published criteria. contemporary motions are required to meet the following criteria:

- No more than 250 words
- Must be an issue that has arisen on or after Friday 5 July 2024
- Addresses one issue only (groupings of multiple issues under a broad heading would not need the criteria)
- Does not propose a rule change
- Does not seek to discuss, or reference, internal and organisational matters.

CLPs and affiliates whose contemporary motions do not meet the CAC's criteria will be informed by email on the evening of Monday 16 September.

Appeals will be heard by the CAC in London on the afternoon of Thursday 19 September. Appeals will be held by phone / virtual meeting or can be made in writing for those unable to attend.

COMPOSITING MEETINGS

Delegates from organisations with a motion subject successful in the Priorities Ballot should attend these meetings on:

The afternoon and evening of Sunday 22 September in the ACC Liverpool.

Start times will be staggered as up to 12 composting meetings may be required.

Composite meetings will begin at 4pm but some may start later.

The Chair of Conference will give further details about the compositing meetings at the end of the Sunday afternoon session immediately after the announcement of the Priorities Ballot result.

The purpose of the compositing meetings is to:

- agree a composite motion for each of the topics successful in the Priorities Ballot
- choose two delegates to move and second the composite motion when it comes up for debate at Conference.

The text of a composite motion must be drawn from the words used in the various motions submitted on the same topic. No new words may be added.

More detailed guidance on the compositing process will be issued to delegates in the 'How Conference Works' guide, which will also be available in the meetings and is available to view or downloaded from:

<https://labour.org.uk/resources/annual-conference-2024-reports/>

EMERGENCY MOTIONS

The deadline for emergency motions is Friday 20 September at 12 noon.

The CAC will only consider Emergency motions for debate if they meet the following criteria:

- it relates to a new issue that has arisen after the closing date for motions (5pm on Thursday 12 September); and
  - the new issue could not reasonably have been the subject of a contemporary motion (so, for example, the publication of a new report relating to an existing known issue would not satisfy this criteria); or
  - the new issue could not reasonably be included within a category of contemporary motions that was submitted for this year's Annual Conference (whether it was determined not to meet the CAC's criteria or has been agreed); and
- be a matter of urgent and immediate importance to the discussion by the whole Labour Party at Annual Conference; and
- are 250 words or less.
- address one issue only.

The text must be submitted using the Democracy Portal by following the link below. For CLPs, only the CLP Secretary or Chair can submit the emergency motion and for affiliated organisations, only the relevant officer with submission rights may submit. If there are any issues please contact

cac@labour.org.uk

<https://partynominations.labour.org.uk>

CLPs and affiliates whose emergency motions do not meet the CAC's criteria will be informed by email.

Whilst at Annual Conference it is the responsibility of all staff, members and volunteers to ensure that their behaviour complies with the standards detailed in the Code of Conduct. Any person who observes a breach of the Code of Conduct should contact the Safeguarding Unit at safeguarding@labour.org.uk

The Safeguarding Unit liaises with external organisations and internal teams to ensure that children, young people and adults-at-risk are kept safe, and that any allegations are investigated by the appropriate body. In order to do this, the Unit shares information with a range of safeguarding partners including the Police and Social Care. Any delegate, visitor or member of staff who is subject to a safeguarding concern being raised against them may result in their Conference pass being suspended.

All delegates, visitors and staff are asked to re-familiarise themselves with the Safeguarding Code of Conduct which can be found here; <https://labour.org.uk/safeguarding/code-of-conduct/>. ## CANDIDATES' STATEMENTS

National Constitutional Committee – Division III – CLPs

Christine BAYLISS

I am standing as a "Labour to Win" Candidate for the NCC. Now Labour is the party of Government – we must maintain high standards of behaviour within the party. I believe we need to deal with complaints in a timely manner and without prejudice. If elected to serve I commit to both of those principles and to apply party rules fairly and objectively.

I've been a member of the Labour Party since 1997 when I studied at the London School of Economics as a mature student. I have since served as the Chair of my CLP, Vice Chair Campaigns and I am currently the Labour Group leader on other District Council having first been elected as a councillor in 2019. At the recent General Election, I stood as the parliamentary candidate for Bexhill and Battle reducing the Tory majority from 26K to just 2,600 votes.

After attending University I went on to work as a civil servant in the Department of Education. There I witnessed first-hand a Labour Government transforming children's and young people's lives and saw for myself the difference a Labour Government can make. I'm excited that after 14 years of failure, we once again have a Labour Government that puts people and the country first.

Maintaining party discipline is key to ensuring continued success and a second term.

Disciplinary processes must be transparent, accountable and above all, fair to grassroots members and trade unionists. In my three years on Labour's National Executive Committee I fought for the principles of natural justice to be applied within Labour's disciplinary processes. The right for those accused to have clear, timely information, to have the opportunity to put their case, and a genuine right to appeal are seemingly too often ignored.

I'm very concerned about equity in Labour's disciplinary processes. It is troubling to hear how many Jewish people who support Palestinian human rights are reported to have been excluded from membership, and I am also concerned about fair treatment for disabled members, older members and those with mental health conditions.

The Forde report exposed significant failings and must be seriously taken on board. If elected, I pledge to uphold the rulebook, reject factionalism and apply the principles of natural justice. I'm an experienced activist, Labour Party member for 30 years, member of UCU, Socialist Health Association and Socialist Education Association.

I've participated in many disciplinary hearings and always been scrupulous in fair application of the rules.

Labour Party Conference is supposed to be a genuinely democratic forum for members and affiliates to determine party policy and direct organisational governance. Unfortunately, recent years have seen this ideal undermined by anti-democratic manoeuvring. Debate is quashed with motions ruled out of order and delegates silenced. A return to pageantry comes at the expense of party democracy.

As a co-founder and National Coordinator of campaign group Labour for a Green New Deal, I have experience of successfully organising at Party Conference to pass popular policy motions demonstrating the grassroots desire for meaningful democratic input. Lately, my experience has been of navigating bureaucratic blockages to CLP motions, including engaging with CAC members to find a resolution. I am therefore committed to using the role of CLP Representative on the CAC to advocate for a fair application of Party rules in order to ensure that Conference facilitates rigorous, comradely debate and democratic expression.

I am proud to have the support of the Centre-Left Grassroots Alliance (CLGA) and ask that you also vote to support Jean Crocker.

As a 23-year-old, Indian female, coming from a working-class background there have been many challenges growing up. Whether that be my parents working day and night to make a living or escaping educational challenges. To even being told I wouldn't make it to university.

All odds are against individuals like me, but I graduated in Religion, Politics and Society from King's College London and am currently working in national security. I strongly believe that it is my responsibility to ensure that individuals are not held back in society often due to the unfair circumstances around them. I understand and will continue to represent the values of the Labour Party which are fundamental to ensuring everyone has a fair chance.

I will bring objectivity and fairness and a commitment to upholding Labour's rules and high standards of behaviour to hearing cases as an NCC member.

I am standing to serve a third term on National Constitutional Committee. I am currently the longest serving CLP rep on the NCC and bring a wealth of experience to the role, I have also previously served as Chair of the committee. I have always been a strong believer in the importance of the party rule book and ensuring it is applied in a fair and just manner. I have vast experience of dealing with internal disciplinary matters from my 7 years on the NCC and also from my previous role on the London Regional executive. I have over the years built an approach and reputation that first and foremost removes factionalism from disciplinary processes and focuses on a fair and just approach for all sides in often difficult cases. I have also sat on regional membership appeals and panel appeals for Local Government selections. I believe in ensuring the integrity of the process to achieve fairness for all. If we ensure the rules are applied fairly to all then we will achieve a unified and effective Party.

Khaleed MOYEEED

I served as a member of the National Constitutional Committee (NCC) between 2018 and 2022 representing constituency Labour parties across the country.

My personal journey has shaped my passion for public service. From an immigrant background, I grew up in inner city council accommodation with deprivation around me.

After graduating with a Law degree, I worked in Haringey, London as a community organiser in the early years of my career, delivering projects to improve community cohesion and reduce crime. I went on to qualify as a solicitor working at two leading international law firms, but have always remained active in my community. I was elected to be a Councillor in Haringey in 2018. That same year, I was elected to the NCC as a CLP representative.

I am running again for a place on the NCC because I would like to continue to be a powerful voice representing ordinary members, who are the backbone of our movement. I have always been close to party members who had elected me to serve them in various positions within the Party. My skills as a dispute resolution lawyer have helped me in my role on the NCC.

Dave LEVY

I am seeking your support to sit on our Party's NCC. I promise that I will act with fairness and consider the evidence on any cases on which I sit. If elected, I pledge to uphold the rulebook, reject factionalism and apply the principles of natural justice.

I believe that our rules should be interpreted in the context of UK and human rights law and that the principles of natural justice must be available to all members. I joined the party in 1974. Since moving to Lewisham in 2010, I have held a number of positions in my CLP, LCF & branch, having been occasionally Secretary of the CLP & LCF over that time.

I have also acted as a workers' companion for the last 7 years which gives me much experience in assessing cases of bullying and discrimination. I have been trained in employment and equality law. I am a member of CLPD and have authored and campaigned for many rule changes to make the party accountable to its members.

I am supported by the CLGA and Momentum and would ask you to vote for me, and my running mates, Khaled Moyeed, Emine Ibrahim and Rachel Garnham.

Hajira PIRANIE

Dear members,

I am excited to announce my candidacy for the Labour Party's National Constitutional Committee (NCC). I am committed to upholding the principles of fairness, transparency, and accountability within our party.

I have been an active member of the Labour Party for over a decade, a former Parliamentary Candidate, & currently a member of the East Midlands Regional Board.

I am a young mother and a trade union organiser. I represent our public sector workers and negotiate for their fair pay and conditions. Fairness and equality are the values that are dear to me. I studied my Masters in Human Rights & Global Ethics and I am currently studying Employment Law. I will always uphold the law and this commitment will be reflected in my role on the NCC. I am deeply committed to our party's values and to ensuring that all members have a voice in our decision-making processes.

At the centre of my judgments will be ensuring justice is delivered to all, as well as holding all members to the highest standards of conduct and ensuring that cases are addressed swiftly and justly.

Please support me with your vote. Together, we can uphold the integrity and values of the Labour Party.

Sioned-Mair RICHARDS

I joined the Labour Party (in the early 90s) to see a fairer Britain. I knew only Labour had the values to make this happen. There was Tory sleaze at the time, there is Tory sleaze now. And it has got worse.

Cronyism, the special COVID contracts. They stink. The Tories say "Oh they're all the same!". We need to show we're not; that integrity and transparency are our watch words.

Arooj SHAH

I am currently in my second year as Chair of the National Constitution Committee. I'm also the Leader of Oldham Council, and previously served as a Commissioner on Gordon Brown's Commission on the UK's Future.

As we approach a General Election this year, it is so important that the Labour Party is ready to govern, and its crucial that our rules are followed by our members and that any issues are dealt with robustly and fairly. I believe my record as NCC Chair shows my willingness to do this and to help create a Labour movement we can all be proud of and one that the public trusts to be Britain's Future.

Auditors

Chris KITCHEN

I am seeking conference approval to be re-elected as an Auditor for our party. I have held the position on behalf of the NUM since the resignation of David Hopper.

I believe that the position of auditor is a responsible position and of value to our party as part of the oversight to ensure we are acting within the law.

The experience I have gained over the years of holding one of the auditor positions will be of benefit should you vote for me to be re-elected.

Please support and vote Chris Kitchen for elected Auditor of the Labour Party.
